SUMMER 2024

A range of training and events in the Diocese of Worcester

Kingdom People

love • compassion • justice • freedom

Dear Colleagues

It gives me great pleasure to introduce our offering of training and learning opportunities for Spring and Summer 2024. As always, there is a rich mixture of focus and content from the very practical to the very spiritual (not that these are mutually exclusive!). We are extremely grateful to all who help to make these opportunities available, and are blessed to have a richness of knowledge and wisdom in the diocese upon which we can draw.

As we continue to pursue our diocesan vision to Grow as Kingdom People, and our particular priority in the Mission and Ministry Team to “Equip Ministers for Mission”, we are very keen to hear from you if there are any particular learning opportunities you would like us to develop as we seek to grow healthy and sustainable churches across the diocese. Do please be in touch if you have any ideas of things we might offer in future that would help us all grow towards our goal of sharing Christ’s love more fully with those among whom we live.

Blessings

Finance and Administration	Lunchtime Learning - The Examen 12 March, 12:30 – 13:30 Led by Helen Stanton When laid up in bed convalescing after a bad war wound, the future St Ignatius started to realise that he felt changed by reading lives of saints in ways he was not be reading romantic adventures. Out of that realisation he developed a whole approach to spirituality which above all he put into his Spiritual Exercises. One of the key disciplines that he developed as part of that is known as the Examen (the normal Spanish word for exam). This refers to a reflection, usually undertaken near the end of the day, that recalls the past day, and tries to notice what was going on, where God was, and where the person was moving more towards or away from, the presence of God. There are several different versions of how to do this, still sharing the same broad approach. In this lunchtime learning session, Helen Stanton will explore how we can make the most of the Examen as a regular spiritual discipline. She is particularly focussed on doing this a positive exercise about growing our relationship with God, and avoiding the common danger of using it as a way of beating ourselves up for mistakes. Helen Stanton is the Warden of Holland House, and a lay theologian. She has trained lay and ordained people for ministry, most recently at the Queen's Foundation, Birmingham. She is also an experienced leader of quiet days and retreats. To book: https://forms.office.com/e/nxDppWCwBT

This summer, our lunchtime learning sessions are on these three books, among the lesser known texts of the Bible. Ruth is one of the shortest books in the Old Testament. For Jews, it's in the third section of their Bibles, the Writings. Christians classify it as among the historical books, and place it between the books of Judges and Samuel. This appears to be roughly when it is set, a distant past for the author, who describes the customs of the period for an audience which doesn't know them. The book tells the story of how a foreign woman becomes an ancestor of the great king, David, and thus also how Ruth gets a mention in Jesus's family tree. Come and explore this fascinating short story with our diocesan Dean of Women's Ministry, Rev'd Becky Elliott. To book: https://forms.office.com/e/ck4cKDz5eh

Worcester Spirituality Gathering - Treasure in the Wilderness: Desert spirituality for uncertain times

2 May, 9:30 (for 10:00) – 12:30
Optional free soup lunch until 1:30

A morning of learning, reflection and sharing facilitated by Canon Dr Andrew Mayes TSSF.

Who is the meeting for?

The Gathering is for anyone who is seeking to explore their spiritual awareness and deepen their faithfulness in the life of prayer. It is also likely to be helpful for those who are involved in the work of accompanying and listening to others on their spiritual journeys, whether they regard this work as ‘spiritual direction’ or are called to a more informal ministry of walking alongside others.

The Purpose of the Gathering

Andrew will be sharing and developing spiritual insights and experience which he has published in his latest book entitled Treasure in the Wilderness. In his introduction he writes: ‘The wilderness reveals unexpected, priceless treasures of transformative wisdom which speak into our own contemporary spiritual search. We see how these gems energize and inspire our discipleship or spiritual practice. As we embark on this spiritual quest, we may never be the same again!’

Free Simple Lunch: There will be an opportunity to stay for up to a further hour until 1.30pm to meet and share over a free ploughman’s lunch for those who wish to do so – please book in beforehand (by Monday 29th April) to order yours and indicate any dietary requirements.

Please contact: Elaine Voice (elaine.voice7@gmail.com or 07747 607216).

It would help us to know beforehand if you plan to attend, but pre-booking is not a requirement - just turn up on the day!

There is no charge for attending the Gathering, but we will be inviting donations towards the expenses of the session.

Location: St. Cecilia's Church Centre, Kidderminster

Enrichment	Lunchtime Learning – Exploring Esther 15 May, 12:30 – 13:30 Led by the Ven. Nikki Groarke, Archdeacon of Dudley There are three books of the Bible (including the Apocrypha) that are named after their heroines: Ruth, Esther and Judith. This summer, our lunchtime learning sessions are on these three books, among the lesser known texts of the Bible. The book of Esther comes in two editions. Depending on your Bible you may have copies of both! There's one version in the Old Testament, translating the original Hebrew text, which famously doesn't mention God, and a longer Greek version in the Apocrypha which explicitly puts God into the story. The story of Esther is the basis of the Jewish feast of Purim, and is set at a time when the Persian empire was at its height. It tells of Esther's part in leading to a miraculous deliverance of the Jewish people in the face of antisemitism. During this session the Archdeacon of Dudley, Nikki Groarke will explore this story, its heroine, and its continuing relevance for today. To book: https://forms.office.com/e/1YDShP1JER

Ministry and Leadership	Everything You Always Wanted to Know About the Church of England (but were afraid to ask) In response to requests from parishes and deaneries, Doug Chaplin and Sam Setchell will be repeating this session in May and June. Have you ever been confused by church structures or jargon? Have you got questions about the church that you feel embarrassed to ask? If so, this training is for you! In this session, Sam and Doug hope to demystify as much of the Church of England as possible and answer your questions. They are happy to cover everything from our organisational language of benefices and synod through terms such as oversight ministry, pioneers and new worshipping communities to incomprehensible acronyms like PCC, DCC, BMO, DBF etc. And everything in between! Please let us know your questions on your booking form so we can make sure we can find out the answer. After the session, and with your active participation, we shall create a jargon-buster and list of frequently asked questions for our website. Sam is the Diocesan Director of Communications, and Doug is the Discipleship and Lay Training Officer. Location: St Andrew's Church Community Room, Pershore To book: https://forms.office.com/e/3AAaknkKKL	16 May, 19:30 – 21:00 (Also repeated on 17 June in Norton, Stourbridge)
Ministry and Leadership	Preaching the Gospel Sometimes it can be difficult to keep our preaching on the Lectionary Gospel fresh, especially when the same stories and episodes come up in subsequent years, and when the text is divided up and disjointed across the year. In this session, we will explore a narrative approach to Mark's Gospel which enables us to hear the writer's distinctive voice and themes, and to deepen our appreciation for the whole Gospel and its unique portrayal of Jesus. We will use Mark as a focus but the principles will apply to any of the Gospels, so will help in planning for reading Luke next year. It will greatly aid our learning together if participants have read the entire Gospel of Mark beforehand. Location: Diocese of Worcester Office Lowesmoor Wharf, Worcester To book: https://forms.office.com/e/yu59HAdbKD	16 May, 10:00 – 12:00 (also repeated on 30 May online)

They can be experienced as a significant burden, as well as a means of enriching community engagement. This workshop, which will include conversation with both the Archdeacon of Worcester and the Church Buildings Officer, offers an opportunity to meet and share with colleagues. What have you found helpful in dealing with difficult disputes? Where are you most aware of the need for support, and what sort of support would help? Where have you found opportunities in bringing the community together around the churchyard, whether for conservation and environmental projects, for educational opportunities, or simply as working parties and teams from the community generating a sense of ownership or belonging? A sandwich lunch will be provided as part of the workshop, so please indicate your dietary requirements when signing up. Location: Inkberrow Church Hall, WR7 4DZ To book: https://forms.office.com/e/BkYVGAc3Tw

Ministry and Leadership	23 May, 12:30 – 13:30 Apologetics – Invitation to a Book Club The first letter of Peter tells us: “Always be prepared to give an account of the hope that is in you.” (1 Pet 3:15) However, we – clergy and lay people alike – get very little training in how to give either a defence of our faith to those who attack it, or how to offer reasonable explanation of it to those who are confused about what we believe. This is the discipline traditionally known as apologetics, from the Latin apologia – defence. This is an invitation to a meeting, convened by Doug Chaplin, about forming a book club (or if you prefer more academic framing, a seminar) to read and reflect on Alister McGrath’s new book, Christian Apologetics: An Introduction (Wiley Blackwell, 2023). This preliminary meeting will be mainly to gauge interest, and if there is sufficient interest, set up a group, probably meeting fortnightly (perhaps monthly) on Zoom, and for 9 further sessions – giving one session per chapter. This seminar might be of particular interest to clergy and Licensed Lay Ministers, but is open to everyone. Participants will need their own copy of the book. You will get more out of, however, if you have at least done the Bishop’s Certificate course. If you are interested in joining this book club, but unable to make this initial meeting, then email Doug Chaplin (doug.chaplin@cofe-worcester.org.uk). You can read Bishop John’s review of this book here: Book review: Christian Apologetics: An introduction by Alister E. Being an Ex-Officio or Bishop's Representative23 May, 18:00 – 19:30

This session will look at the unique role of the clergy Ex-Officio or approved Bishop's Representative on the governing body of a church school.

We will review their responsibilities and provide an understanding of the position within the governing board and how it relates to other key stakeholders within the school. Additionally, this session offers an opportunity for the Ex-Officio or Bishop's Representative to explore further ways for the school and church communities to work effectively together.

Enrichment	4 June, 12:30 – 13:30 Getting to know the book of Judith Led by Fleur Dorrell, Biblical Apostolate Manager for the Catholic Bishops’ Conference of England & Wales in partnership with Bible Society. There are three books of the Bible (including the Apocrypha) that are named after their heroines: Ruth, Esther and Judith. This summer, our lunchtime learning sessions are on these three books, among the lesser known texts of the Bible. Written a hundred or so years before the time of Jesus, the book of Judith is a piece of imaginative fiction we now have in the Apocrypha. Set in the time of the Assyrian Empire, it tells a story of the empire invading Israel. Judith demands that the leaders of her town show some faith in God, and resist the invading forces. When the men refuse to act, Judith takes matters into her own hands, and the actions lead to Israelite victory. It is one of the biblical stories that has attracted feminist interpreters, in the way it portrays a bold and faithful woman taking effective action where the men have been both timid and unwilling or unable to trust in God. Judith provides an example of both faith and courage. Come and find out more about this relatively obscure story, which has given rise to a number of famous paintings. Fleur Dorrell, a member of our cathedral community, works jointly for the Bible Society and the Roman Catholic Church in England and Wales, promoting the understanding and use of the Bible. She has a particular interest in the relation of the Bible and the arts, and maintains a website, www.godwhospeaks.uk supporting her work with the Roman Catholic Church. To book: https://forms.office.com/e/n3EZUFVUip

Ministry and Leadership

Exploring St Luke's Gospel

6 November, 10:00 – 12:30 (in person)
OR 6 November, 19:00 – 20:30 (online)

For whom: this workshop, originally arranged as part of the LLM continuing ministerial development programme, is open to all who preach, clergy as well as Readers.

In Advent 2024 the church begins the final year of its three year cycle of readings with St Luke's gospel providing the focus for the year. This workshop is being run over a morning, beginning with refreshments at 10.00am and moving to learning at 10.30am. A slightly shortened version of the learning is being presented online in the evening.

St Luke's gospel is many people's favourite gospel, and that reflects his skill as a storyteller, who is also more interested than the other gospel writers in the short stories Jesus tells. Famous and much loved parables like the story of the prodigal son and the good Samaritan only occur in Luke's gospel. Luke also pays quite a lot attention to themes of money and possessions, shows us more of Jesus at prayer, and generally makes women more visible in his story. He is also, of course, the only gospel writer to write a sequel!

Doug Chaplin, Discipleship and Lay Training Officer, will reflect with those attending on Luke as someone seeking to preach on it over the coming year. This will include ways informed by recent trends in biblical criticism, and addressing the contexts in which we read scripture to inform our individual and corporate following of Jesus today. What are some of the emphases Luke brings to our relationship with Jesus that we can draw out in our preaching through the coming year?

The workshop will have a mix of input and discussion, as we also share our own insights and experience with one another.

Location for in person training: The Old Library Centre Droitwich \(to park please use Covercroft Car Park \(WR9 8HE\)\) Please note this is NOT Droitwich Library!
