

THE COLLECT (either of the following or from the Pew Sheet)

Lord of all life and power, who through the mighty resurrection of your Son overcame the old order of sin and death
to make all things new in him;
grant that we, being dead to sin
and alive to you in Jesus Christ,
may reign with him in glory;
to whom with you and the Holy Spirit,
be praise and honour, glory and might,
now and in all eternity. Amen.

O God,
through the mighty resurrection
of your Son, Jesus Christ,
you have delivered us from the power of darkness
and brought us into the kingdom of your love:
grant that as he was raised from the dead
so we may walk in newness of life,
and seek those things which are above;
where with the Father, and the Holy Spirit,
he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

THE CONCLUSION

May the risen Christ grant us the joy of eternal life. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord. Alleluia! Alleluia!
Thanks be to God. Alleluia! Alleluia!

As it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia!

An Easter HYMN or THE EASTER ANTHEMS may be recited or sung

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us, so let us celebrate the feast,
not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
Christ once raised from the dead dies no more,
death has no more dominion over him.
In dying, he died to sin once for all;
in living he lives to God.
See yourselves therefore as dead to sin and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Christ has been raised from the dead;
the first fruits of those who sleep'
For since by one man came death,
by another has come also the resurrection of the dead,
for as in Adam all die,
even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
Glory to the Father

THE GOSPEL CANTICLE: The Benedictus (morning)

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, for he has come to his people and set them free.
He has raised up for us a mighty Saviour,
born of the house of his servant, David.
Through his holy prophets he promised of old,
that he would save us from our enemies,
from the hands of all that hate us.
He promised to show mercy to our forebears
and to remember his holy covenant.
This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham,
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
Free to worship him without fear, holy and righteous in his sight, all the days of our life.
You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the most high,
for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,
To give his people knowledge of salvation,
by the forgiveness of all their sins.
In the tender mercy of our God,
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,
To shine on those who dwell in darkness
and the shadow of death,
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and shall be for ever. Amen.

The Magnificat (afternoon or evening)

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour.
For he has looked with favour on his lowly servant,
from this day forward all generations will call me blessed.
The Almighty has done great things for me,
and holy is his name.
He has mercy on those who fear him
in every generation.
He has shown the strength of his arm,
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones
and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things and the rich he has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of his servant, Israel,
for he has remembered his promise of mercy.
The promise he made to our forebears,
to Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and shall be for ever. Amen.
