

FOR YOUR PRAYERS

- * The natural world and our wise use of its resources
- * At this time of party political conferences, for our politicians
- * The poor and needy, refugees and the homeless
- * Troubled places of the world; Afghanistan, Ethiopia, South Sudan, Yemen.
- * Barney Olding to be baptised today and River Cable to be baptised next Sunday
- * NHS staff and all health care professionals
- * The sick and all for whom our prayers are asked:
 - Parishioners –
Barry Richardson, Joy Easterbee, Muriel Whelan, Derek Lewis, Jenny Paget, Frank Jellis, Sally Elliot
 - Family & Friends - Abigail Edkins, Lonah Hebditch, Claire O'Neill, Giles Henry, Geoffrey Olver, Margaret Allen, Sue Wheelhouse, Tony Parks
 - * RIP – Those we love but see no longer

During the Rector's absence, Rev Sheila Thomas (01202 987915/email: sheila2is@yahoo.co.uk) is the point of contact with regard to services and pastoral care. All other matters will be dealt with by the churchwardens, Derek Lewis and Jenny Lewis. Please keep an eye on the Pew Sheet and website as occasionally it may be necessary to make changes to established routines

Prayer of St Teresa of Avila

Let nothing disturb you,
let nothing frighten you,
all things will pass away.
God never changes;
patience obtains all things,
whoever has God lacks nothing.
God alone suffices. Amen.

The Collect

O God, forasmuch as without you we are not able to please you; mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
