

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

Diocese of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich

The Bishop of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich wishes to appoint a

BISHOPS' MINISTRY OFFICER

To work with the Bishops in their work of ministerial development, especially with ordinands on the diocesan scheme and with IME2, together with facilitating a holistic approach to ministerial well-being among the clergy and authorised ministers of the diocese.

The successful candidate will be warm, wise and fun, have a lively and robust faith and theological intellect and work well with clergy and lay ministers. They will be well organised and able to work strategically.

They will be ordained in the Church of England or a Church in full communion with it, have served an incumbency or equivalent position of responsibility such as in a diocese or theological education institution.

The post is full-time and remuneration is equivalent to an incumbent's stipend plus a housing allowance.

This post has attached to it a genuine occupational requirement under the 2010 Equality Act, Part 1, Schedule 9.

For an informal conversation please contact the Bishops' Chaplain, The Revd Michael Robinson on 07882 095083.

For further details go to: www.cofesuffolk.org/vacancies