From your Diocesan Schools’ Adviser

Happy new year!

Welcome to the first DARE newsletter of 2023!

This issue contains the latest in RE news and some important updates to be aware of. Please share with interested colleagues. I look forward to seeing you in 2023.

Kind regards,

Gemma 😊

Update – Vote for your NEW KS1 Emmanuel Project unit

Schools who implement the 2023 syllabus will require a new KS1 unit.
Which new Key Stage 1 Emmanuel Project unit would you prefer?

- What stories help a Buddhist learn loving kindness?
- How does a Hindu celebrate devotion to a deity at the festival of Holi?
- What do Humanists think about to ensure they make good decisions?
- How can you tell the word Waheguru is important to Sikhs?

Padlets for RE Subject leaders

For community primary and academy RE Subject Leaders (padlet.org)

For C of E RE Subject Leaders (padlet.org)

Lots of resources to help and support RE subject leaders.
There is a new SIAMS framework for September 2023.

In a nutshell:

- Judgements replace grades.
- Each school needs to have a theologically rooted Christian vision.
- High level inspection questions with a focus on impact replace exhaustive lists of criteria.
- Each school’s specific context plays a greater role than at present.
- Trust accountability for academies is brought to the fore.

IQ6 Is the religious education curriculum effective (with reference to the expectations set out in the Church of England’s Statement of Entitlement for Religious Education)?

a) How do school and trust leaders ensure that the provision, profile, and priority of religious education in all key stages reflect its place on the curriculum of a Church school?

b) How do school and trust leaders ensure that the religious education curriculum is challenging, accurate, well-sequenced, well-balanced, relevant, and diverse?

c) How do school and trust leaders ensure that religious education is well-resourced, and that continuing professional development for staff has an impact on the effectiveness of the curriculum?

IQ7 What is the quality of religious education in voluntary aided and former voluntary aided schools, and in former voluntary controlled schools in which denominational religious education is taught?

a) What is the quality of teaching?

b) How well do pupils make progress in their learning as a result of a balanced and well-structured religious education curriculum?

c) How does assessment inform teaching and learning?

Things of interest in the RE community
RE Grants

The Jerusalem Trust (regrants.org.uk)

Over £400,000 awarded during the last 5 years!

Not funded:

The fund is not intended for use towards the purchase of resources for assemblies, personal, spiritual or social development, computer hardware, consumables, gift giving, prayer areas, reflection gardens or other school activities such as visits, specialist workshops, visitors or teacher training, for example.

Schools in the diocese have had a lot of success here securing funding for resources!

- Applications to the fund can only be made for Religious Education (RE) resources about Christianity. These can include textbooks, bibles, teacher resources, artefacts, CD-ROMs, DVDs and online subscriptions for use in RE lessons. Only resources which focus solely on the Christian religion are eligible.
Walk Through the Bible NEW Easter resource

The resource will include:

- 4 fully planned and resourced lessons.
- Short interactive videos to get the ball-rolling - we’ll be recording these in Jerusalem in January.
- Objectives linked to R.E., P.S.H.E., and Citizenship.
- A colourful and comprehensive booklet for children to complete, including stories from the Bible and opportunities to reflect and respond.
- A 2 week English plan for UKS2 that links to the Easter videos.

All of this comes at no cost to your school. However, there are only a limited number available. Use this link to sign up today so you don’t miss out on this wonderful opportunity.

Less than half of the population in the UK identifies as Christian for the first time.
The proportion of people in England and Wales describing themselves as Christian dropped below 50 per cent in the 2021 census for the first time, the Office for National Statistics (ONS) said.
At the time of the previous census in 2011, 59.3 per cent of people – 33.3 million – identified as Christian, but now the figure is 46.2 per cent, or 27.5 million people.

Withdrawal from RE – University of Exeter Survey

 Withdrawal from RE

Survey of Teachers’ Experiences

Do you receive requests for withdrawal from RE? How do you manage these requests?

Dr Jonathan Doney at the University of Exeter invites teachers to provide information regarding this issue.

For further questions, please email Dr Doney at J.Doney@Exeter.ac.uk.

Farmington Fellowship – paid time out of class!

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS JANUARY 29th 2023

http://www.farmington.ac.uk/index.php/farmington-scholarships/

Farmington will pay for up to 30 days out of school for you to complete a research study of your choice. This could include writing materials for the new Suffolk RE Syllabus or the Emmanuel Project.

What subjects may be studied?
Headteachers may study any subject that would be of benefit to their school. School teacher Scholars are free to study any aspect of Religious Education or associated subjects they wish but preference will be given to applicants whose work can be seen to be of direct value to the teaching of RE in schools. Occasionally the Institute, in conjunction with one of its partner universities or colleges, may advertise for an RE teacher to undertake research on a specific topic which is relevant to RE.
A survey into attitudes among parents towards religious education has found that religious and philosophical themes are a major talking point at home between parents and their children.
The Story Tent offers easily accessible online teaching materials to support KS2 pupils to learn more about Religion and Worldviews through the lens of story. It provides resources that develop skills for intercultural and interfaith dialogue through an inquiry-based approach with an exploration of difference at its heart. The Story Tent equips pupils with the confidence they need to live well in our increasingly globalised and diverse societies. There is a bank of stories from a range of worldviews, covering topics such as Creation, Peace, Stewardship, Leadership, Justice, and Wisdom. Each story is read online, with a short introductory commentary.
This website brings together the Bible and Art. It is organised according to books of the Bible and displays artwork from a range of periods and cultures.

Visual Commentary on Scripture | VCS (thevcs.org)
Bayt Al Fann is a website with the strapline: ‘a house for everyone, exploring art & culture inspired by Islamic tradition’. Containing both modern and ancient examples of Islamic art, as well as interviews with current Islamic artists this website has a range of images that would be suitable to explore in the classroom. The interviews and articles are likely to be more suitable for older students, but may give teachers an insight into the traditions and features of Islamic inspired art.
The RE Quest website has been recently updated and has some helpful new features, as well as more up to date interviews and resources. It focuses exclusively on Christianity and has a wide range of video clips and information about Christian beliefs and practices. There is the facility to filter by Key Stage as well as topic. There is a new facility to create topic boards within the website, linking resources together as you want them, and there is an accessibility button which allows the user to change some of the ways that the page is presented. This should make the resources more accessible to a wider range of learners.
