

Trust - content ideas for primary school collective worship

Definition from a Christian viewpoint: Trust is the basis of all stable relationships, including a person’s relationship with God. It is rooted in truth, and will grow through consistent experiences of reliability and integrity. God’s commitment to humanity is seen in his willingness to trust ordinary people with carrying out his purposes through history. Trusting God means being wholeheartedly confident in Him and His character. It means knowing He will do what He says He will do, and that He’ll never act contrary to His character as disclosed in Scripture.
