Collective Worship Reflections

As it is the first week of the new half term we returned to looking again at our school values with a focus on perseverance and resilience. In our reflection assembly this morning, Diamond's Bodhi shared "I find reading hard but I keep trying and am getting better and better" and Emerald's Isaac shared "Resilience means bouncing back even when things are hard, just like a bouncy ball."

Worker of the Week

Diamond

Martha for her fantastic writing this week. Martha is now writing in full sentences!

Molly for her amazing confidence and speech this week. Molly has been bursting with stories and ideas.

Emerald

Layla for fantastic focus and explanations of her methods in Maths. You are a super mathematician!

Emily for her enthusiasm and curiosity in Science when investigating bulbs. She was so keen to learn about dissection when we cut open and observed onion plants.

Ruby

Amelia for having a positive work ethic this week, especially in her Maths, working extremely hard progressing through the layers.

Joel for settling into his new school and surroundings extremely well, making lots of new friends and giving 100% in his learning.

Topaz

Charlie Sm for great focus this week and showing perseverance with the learning on angles.

Jack for always working hard and wanting to improve and develop his learning.

Please see the end of this letter for next year's term dates which include INSET days and residential.

Summer Fayre – Friday 8th July, 3.30pm-5.30pm

Plans are coming together for our Summer Fayre and instead of a non-uniform day, this year we are holding a “Socks for Sweets” day on Friday 24th June where children can wear brightly coloured socks for the day (with their full school uniform) in exchange for sweets for the Sweet Tombola stall (no chocolate please). Further information will be published nearer the time but in the meantime, if you are able to offer to help set up and/or run a stall, please do let us know by emailing the PTA at templecombeschool.pta@hotmail.com or contact the school office.

We hope you all have a great weekend.
