

St. Botolph's, Northfleet & St. Mark's, Rosherville
Third Sunday of Easter
14th April 2024

Glennys Scott, beloved wife of Revd David, went to her Lord on Wednesday 10th April. Please remember David and the family in your prayers as we give thanks for her life, her love and her faith. May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

Saturday 20th April 'Messy Cathedral Rochester' 1.30-3.30

A free event, no need to book. Bring a picnic and something to sit on!

Penny (in St Botolph's Choir) and Stan, her dog, have signed up to do the April Dog Walking Challenge in aid of Cancer Research UK. They have pledged to walk 2 miles (at least) every day in April and would be grateful for any sponsorship. Forms available in church or give online at:

The Wednesday Eucharist at St Mark's, 10.30am

'Thank You' to the pupils at Rosherville Primary School who collected and donated clothing for the Homeless at Gravesend Sanctuary, as their Lent Giving Project. The items were gratefully received and have already been distributed to those in need. A Certificate awaits on their return to school!

Our sincere thanks to Steve, Ross and Matthew at Horlocks Funeral Directors who collected Easter eggs and chocolate bunnies for St Botolph's Church to distribute to local children.

The Annual Parish Council Meeting is on 28th April immediately following the Parish Eucharist and will be held in the church hall at St Botolph's. Everyone is invited to this important meeting.

Prayers please for our good friends at St Botolph's, Leila and Reza, who have been moved to Slough. We give thanks for their faith, their example and their friendship; may God bless and protect them in all that the future holds. If you wish to contribute to a gift for them, please place it in the basket provided and Fr Gordon will take it when he visits them.
