

St. Botolph's, Northfleet & St. Mark's, Rosherville

Sixth Sunday of Easter

5th May 2024

We give thanks for the life of Helen Smith, involved in a serious road accident on 14th April, she died in hospital. Helen was a beloved Mum and Grandmother, member of St Botolph's Church, and the choir, bell-ringer, Food Bank Helper and volunteer at The Sanctuary for the Homeless. Please remember her family and friends at this time and the St Botolph's community of which she was such a part. May she rest in peace.

A raffle in memory of Helen will take place at St Botolph's, tickets £2 each, on Sundays 5th, 12th and 19th May in aid of the Air Ambulance as a gesture of thanks for their amazing assistance for Helen on that day.

Ascension Day Eucharist, Thursday 9th May, 7pm at St Botolph's

Penny (in St Botolph's Choir) and Stan, her dog, have signed up to do the April Dog Walking Challenge in aid of Cancer Research UK. They have pledged to walk 2 miles (at least) every day in April and would be grateful for any sponsorship. Forms available in church or give online at:
