From the Bishop....

I'm a patron of Somerset Sight, one of the perks that comes with the job! My elderly mum has macular degeneration and so I was very interested to hear more about this valuable work. Jackie (CEO) and Bella (Chair of Trustees) came to tell me more. They have over 250 volunteers who work across the whole of Somerset supporting those with visual impairment. 160 of these visit people in their homes to offer such vital help as reading people's mail aloud.

I know how important that is to my mum. Living on her own, her letters are a lifeline, a contact with the outside world. She's blessed with plenty of visitors, partly because she will talk to anyone and is confident enough to go out and about to discover new things even though she occasionally trips over and breaks something! But can you imagine how confining losing your sight can be? How your world could become smaller as you lose your confidence? How lonely you might become?

Loneliness and isolation are the experience of many people, not just those who are the seniors of our communities or those with disabilities to overcome. I know that many of you have a real gift for noticing that and doing something about it. Many of our communities rely on people like you to give time and attention to those who are feeling disassociated from the world around them, a little lost.

Visiting, volunteering with organisations such as Somerset Sight, are important gifts of service to our communities, a wonderful way of 'living the story' of God's love. If you are doing so, then thank you for that simple but profound act of love. And if not, then why not consider giving an hour a week to someone who might discover God's love through you?

Rt Revd Ruth Worsley
Bishop of Taunton

Installation of Rev Canon Julie Fleming

The parish welcomed Julie with much warmth and celebration on Saturday September at St Martin's church.

The service began with a procession led by the Bishop of Taunton Right Rev Ruth Worsley. Also present were the acting Archdeacon of Bath, Rev Chris Hare, plus a Deputy Lieutenant of Somerset whose role was to be the Queen's representative. She read from an elegant parchment roll which contained an official order from Her Majesty the Queen.

Bishop Ruth spoke in a fun and engaging manner, and the service was kept moving along by the many contributors, for example Mr Marriot, the head teacher at St Martin's, plus other local civic dignitaries. Some of the children from Little Martins took part and afterwards said that they found the service 'dramatic'! It ran smoothly overall and was followed by a wonderful buffet in the school next door.

Thank you very much to all those who volunteered in every capacity to make it such a success – well done, and welcome to Julie and her husband Paul.

Thank you from Rev Anne

Thank you for the wonderful eight years I've enjoyed as Team Vicar of St Martin's and Wick St Lawrence, it is sad to say 'goodbye' but I know that God is calling me on and Worle parish is in very safe hands. It has been a delight to work with dedicated church wardens and fellow clergy and I take with me a whole range of memories: that first experience of biting winter cold in the country at Wick and joyous carol services, the growth of Little Martins children's group on Sundays at St Martin's, driving to work past fields of cows, baptising so many children in the ancient fonts of St Martin's and Wick, singing in the rain and sun on the High Street on Good Fridays, laughing, weeping and praying together, but most of all the support and love from kind and caring people. May you know God's blessing now and always.

St Martin's Church

Thank you from Rev Julie

“What can I say except you’re welcome!”

If you have contact with children – grandchildren, schools or your own young ones, then these words from the recent Disney film Moana will be very familiar to you! (They are sung frequently in our car!) To say that I have been most welcomed, would be an understatement! It was great at the installation service at St Martin’s on 9 September to have representatives from all 4 parish churches along with dignitaries, community representatives, head teachers, family, friends, deanery and those who had travelled from the other side of the country from Becontree, St Mary join us, along with Bishop Ruth – to celebrate the beginning of a new ministry and a new chapter! I did indeed feel most welcomed!

Everyone worked so hard to make it a special occasion! The worship was wonderful and inclusive, the food afterwards was a treat, and of course the peal of bells was magnificent! Thank you to all involved and all who came! I chose the reading from I Corinthians 12, which talks about unity and everyone being important and needed. My prayer is that as we start this new chapter as a parish, we remember that we are indeed ‘in it together’, but not alone! We serve a living God, who knows where we are at and what our anxieties are. He has all posts covered!

With the departure of Rev Anne Farmer, we remember that life is always changing and we thank God for her ministry here and pray for her as she begins a new journey in a new place. We remember that God is faithful and when changes occur in our lives, he remains constant and walks with us helping us, directing us and inspiring us for the days ahead. We trust in him.

St Martin’s Baby and Toddler Group continues to meet on Tuesdays from 9.15 - 10.45 and as Rev Anne departs we are extremely grateful to Abby Isaac and Maureen Grant, who are taking over responsibility for the group. Abby is a mum of two and has already done a great job of organising the toys and crafts. Maureen has been bringing her grandchildren to Toddlers since they were babies, although the youngest, Amelia, has now started school, Maureen has agreed to continue coming along to help run the group being particularly good at finding great stories to read to the children. Thank you Abbe and Maureen.

October Film Night

This month we will be showing ‘Golden Years’ a very amusing British film partly shot in Bristol. Saturday October 28 doors open 5.15 for 5.45 start, refreshments available.

JAM News

This month sees Ally Webb step down as JAM Leader. The great news is that Ally and her husband Nathan are expecting a child in December! Congratulations to them all. Jen Back is kindly offering to step in as JAM Leader, at least on a temporary basis. Some other kind people have also offered to go through the DBS safeguarding process in order to keep JAM going. We are still in a precarious state in terms of volunteers for JAM. If you are a regular at St Mark's please can you pray about joining the team? We are happy if you only want to sit in the room and not take part; that will be extremely helpful. You may only be needed 2-3 times a year. Please pray and speak to Rev Chris!

Open Doors

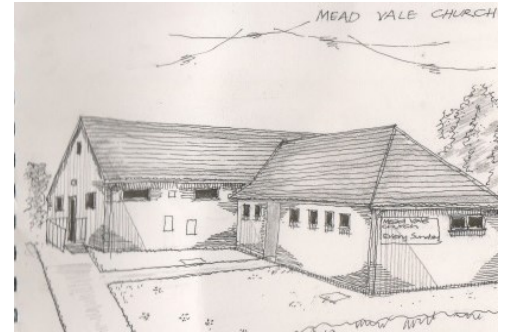

Back on Sunday 24 September we welcomed Chris Lowther, a speaker from the organisation Open Doors, which serves persecuted Christians across the world. We're grateful to Chris and to Open Doors for the excellent work they do to support those who are treated badly because of their faith in Christ. Put 'opendoorsuk.org' in the search engine to visit their website, with lots of interesting videos and resources.

Ability Sunday

On Sunday 10 September we took part in 'Ability Sunday' – an annual event where churches think about the value of people who have additional needs and learning disabilities. The loving community at St Mark's church want to welcome such people and help, because many disabled people face barriers to their inclusion and involvement in the wider community. Ability Sunday is where disabled people are welcomed and enabled to express themselves and build confidence, offering opportunities for friendship and communal experience. Ability Sunday is also a day when churches rejoice in the crucial contribution that disabled people make to the life of the church and start the journey to include disabled people in the worship, work and life of the church.

With love, Chris

Mead Vale Church

In COSMIC (our children's group) before the Summer the children looked at different Biblical characters and also Christian people in the world who have made a difference eg Mother Theresa, William Booth and many others. On the 24 September Dave Hopwood came to share with us about his faith and how the Holy Spirit has gifted him in communicating the Gospel to children. He did this by showing some video and film clips. It was very engaging and so good to have him with us.

During September we had a Leadership Team Away Day where we talked about the Holy Spirit in our lives and the life of the church. We met in the Green Room at St Augustine's Church in Locking and it was good to have more time to talk about the life of our Church and what God is saying to us about the future. We had some exciting ideas about developing our outreach, fund raising and Christmas! Rev Julie Fleming came to join us for #refreshments and it was lovely for the team to meet her in a relaxed setting! We thank God for these times away together.

On Saturday 30 September we gathered outside the church for our Harvest Outreach. We gave out 100 flapjacks, made by our very own Jayne Webster-Blyth and wrapped in cellophane by members of our church family. It was so good to gift the community with such a delicious, home made gift, let them know the Church is here for them and start to offer prayer to folks we strike up a conversation with. We look forward to our next outreach at Christmas.

On Sunday 1 October we have our Church family breakfast, cooked by Penny, Steve and Jenny, followed by a short all-age service for Harvest, where there will be a food offering that will be given to the Food Bank in Weston-Super-Mare. We look forward to sharing food and fellowship together.

Emma Amyes

St Lawrence Church, Wick St Lawrence

As autumn kicks in, leaves drop and the clocks go back, there is always the quiet of the church to seek sanctuary and peace. Sanctuary morning in October is on Saturday 7 with ideas for dealing with anxiety and troubles and taking each day as it comes. Drop in any time between 10am and 12.30pm, hot drinks and cake provided.

Work continues at church to improve the fabric of the building. The picture shows drainage works that have been taking place on the north side of Wick church for the past two months and are near completion.

Ditches have been dug around the perimeter of the building with drainage pipes inserted leading to a large soakaway in the middle of the graveyard, (behind the earth pile.) This work is to drain moisture away from the walls which inside are constantly damp and flaky.

The work has been very skilfully managed. Looking at the area now you can hardly tell there has been any upheaval. This will dramatically affect the atmosphere inside the church and will eventually enable successful much needed interior decoration.

We said farewell at Wick to Vicar Anne with a ploughman's lunch and local cider in Ebdon Bow barn for members of the church and community. There was a presentation of gifts including a John Featherstone original cartoon and some gardening equipment to help tame the rather large garden at the new vicarage. This was a lovely occasion which followed a special service in the morning including the baptism of triplets, Reuben, Edward and George Reeves, grandsons of regular church members Mike and Beryl. The boys, also known as REG, first letter of each name, are identical natural triplets and we enjoyed them being blessed and welcomed into God's church.

Then and Now: Worle's Church Hall

By the middle of the 20th century Worle had enjoyed the Church of St. Martin for some 900 years, but it still had no Church Hall. In 1927 a movement emerged in the village to provide the parish with this much needed venue. Rev. Frederick May took on the role of Chairman of an organising committee made up of over 100 people. Contributions from private individuals purchased a site adjoining the Church lands for £75 for the new building. Next time you are out for a stroll take a turn up Hill Road [or down, if you start from the top]. Until the 1930s this area was mainly orchards. The photograph, top left, probably taken about 1930, looks down Hill road and shows the trees in abundance on the right. You can also spot a turning on the left hand side which later became Hill Road East. This will take you to the site of the planned Church Hall.

The people of Worle still needed to raise the money for the building work, and organised all kinds of fund raising activities, the most fruitful of which was an annual Fete and Flower Show. The first event in 1927 raised £160, which was banked for the building fund. By 4 August 1934, when the 7th annual show took place, the hall was built and very nearly paid for. Worle Church Hall became the place where the village met for dances, meetings, wedding breakfasts, beetle drives, film shows and Christmas parties. There was a stage, wings, a committee room and kitchen.

On the 9th September, 1939 the hall was requisitioned for 'war activities' and normal social life had to find small corners elsewhere. By 1945, when the Church Hall re-opened for normal service, the first priority was to raise money to welcome the servicemen home and that accomplished, huge parties were held on VE Day. This was the golden age of the Church Hall, and it lasted through the 50s, 60s and early 70s. The Mothers' Union picture, above right, is from 1955. Sadly, in the late 1970s, the Church had to sell the building to fund works within the church and it became Worle Village Surgery. It is now vacant again and advertised to rent for £30,000 a year. The people of Worle still very much regret it's passing.

The Future of the Old Deanery in Wells

The Diocese of Bath and Wells is seeking to move its offices from The Old Deanery on Cathedral Green in Wells to a new-build site elsewhere in the city.

The recommendation to relocate over 50 members of staff and all operations was agreed at a meeting of Bishop's Council (the Bishop of Bath and Wells' advisory body and Standing Committee of Diocesan Synod) on 20 June and shared at the latest session of Diocesan Synod on 12 July.

The decision in principle follows investigations by a small working group consisting of representatives from each diocesan function plus user groups. Members looked into whether it would be preferable to stay and invest in the Old Deanery buildings for the next 10 to 20 years or to move and locate elsewhere within two years. Poor access for disabled visitors; lack of environmentally-friendly credentials; limited number and size of meeting rooms and high repair, maintenance and running costs of The Old Deanery buildings were all cited as major reasons for recommending a new-build option.

Nick May, Diocesan Secretary, chaired the working group and is ultimately responsible for the office buildings and facilities. Nick says, "The Old Deanery is a wonderful building, in a beautiful location with a rich history. I along with many of my colleagues feel a huge fondness for it. However, It is becoming increasingly clear that an 800 year-old, Grade 1 listed building, originally built as a home for the Dean of Wells does not function effectively as a modern, welcoming, office and meeting space. Nor will it meet the day-to-day needs of the people who work here into the future.

We calculate that to bring The Old Deanery up to the standard required would cost £3m, plus months of disruption. The cost of moving to a purpose-built development is estimated at £3.25m. We strongly feel that relocation is a more responsible and sustainable use of diocesan funds and will help us better serve our 500 parishes."

The decision to relocate is currently a decision in principle. More detailed work will now be undertaken by a new working group in terms of locating and negotiating a site and planning the move. Based on a progress report due later this year, Bishop's Council will then either confirm the decision to proceed or revisit its recommendation.

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Genesis chapters 39:20-41:44

Joseph's brothers had sold him as a slave and he had ended up in Egypt. Then he was wrongly accused and was sent to prison.

Joseph was trusted to look after the other prisoners.

Then Pharaoh's butler and baker were sent to the prison. One night they had strange dreams.

... I made
juice from the grapes
and gave it to Pharaoh..

.. all the
bread in my baskets
was eaten by birds.

God knows what your dreams mean -
you will be pardoned ... but you won't.

The two men
left the prison.

Don't forget me!

But they did

Two years later
Pharaoh had a dream

None of his advisors could explain it...

... then his butler
remembered Joseph.

So Joseph was cleaned up and sent to Pharaoh

and then the seven thin cows ate the seven fat cows but they were still thin.

God says there will be seven bumper years, then
seven years of famine.

You must choose someone trustworthy to store the spare food in the good years

Pharaoh was so impressed
he gave Joseph the job!

Father pour out your Spirit on us,
And grant us a new vision of your glory,
A new experience of your power,
A new faithfulness to your word
And a new consecration to your service,
That your love may grow
Among us and your kingdom come:
