Psalm: 119 (printed inside)

O Almighty God, who by your blessed Son called Matthew the tax collector to be an apostle and evangelist: grant us grace to forsake the selfish pursuit of gain and the possessive love of riches that we may follow in the way of your Son Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING:

PROVERBS 3:13-18

Happy are those who find wisdom, and those who get understanding, for her income is better than silver, and her revenue better than gold. She is more precious than jewels, and nothing you desire can compare with her. Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honour. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her; those who hold her fast are called happy.

GOSPEL:

MATTHEW 9:9-13

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, ‘Follow me.’ And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax-collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, ‘Why does your teacher eat with tax-collectors and sinners?’ But when he heard this, he said, ‘Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, “I desire mercy, not sacrifice.” For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.’

PSALM 119 VERSES 129-138

The Response sung by everyone is "Lead me, O Lord, in the path of your commandments."

(Cantor) Your testimonies are wonderful: therefore my soul keeps them. The opening of your word gives light: it gives understanding to the simple.

(All) Response

(Cantor) I open my mouth and draw in my breath, as I long for your commandments. Turn to me and be gracious to me, as is your way with those who love your name.

Response

(Cantor) Order my steps by your word, and let no wickedness have dominion over me. Redeem me from earthly oppressors so that I may keep your commandments.

Response

(Cantor) Show the light of your countenance upon your servant and teach me your statutes. My eyes run down with streams of water, because the wicked do not keep your law.

Response

(Cantor) Righteous are you, O Lord, and true are your judgements. You have ordered your decrees in righteousness and in great faithfulness.

Response

(Cantor) Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen

PLEASE HOLD IN YOUR PERSONAL PRAYERS

We pray for those who are sick and those who support them and anyone recently in need. If you know of anyone who would like to be added to our prayers please let Linda know.

PLEASE CONTINUE TO HOLD IN YOUR PRAYERS: those with on-going problems or long term illness, and we remember particularly those who have asked us to pray for them: Lynn, Kevin and family. Barbara.

Please also remember in your prayers those who have died recently, and those whose anniversaries of death occur around this time.

Fiona is commencing a Foundation in Christian Ministry Course and would welcome your support and prayers. The course over the next twelve months will provide a foundation for further training in lay ministry.
