

An Invitation to all for Sea Sunday 13th July at 9.30am

On Sea Sunday we gather around the world to think of seafarers' welfare and we give thanks to God for our local heroes and heroines from various Search & Rescue Organisations as well as others who work at sea. Also those who travel by boat or enjoy maritime sports and hobbies.

- The RNLI
- The HM Coastguard
- The National Coastwatch Institution (NCI)
- Lifeguards on the beaches and all pools
- Fishermen
- Sailors
- Royal and Merchant Navy
- Sea Cadets
- All those who enjoy water sports
- Sea Swimmers

Our morning service at 9.30am in St Buryan Church will be dedicated to you all, so we would love you to come. This special service will be led by the Revd Adam Thomas. Do come in uniform or your “works dress” and bring any equipment. A few surf boards, snorkels and fishing rods would be wonderful, although I am not sure there will be room for a boat! You are all very welcome. Do come and join us.
