

Cornwall Churches Day

raise funds • have fun
explore Cornish churches & chapels

"Painting the Church Red"

Talk at St Buryan Church TR19 6BA
on 23rd October 2pm

by Dr Joanna Mattingly

Dr Mattingly has studied Cornish medieval churches for forty years.

In this talk she will focus on the surviving evidence of rood lofts of which St Buryan has one of the best and most colourful examples.

Entry including tea £7, payment on the day by cash or card
proceeds shared between St Buryan PCC and CHCT

To assist the caterers if possible advise secretary@chct.info or fiona.vinnicombe@btinternet.com
of your intention to stay for tea

This event is part of Cornwall Churches Day, a countywide event organised by Cornwall Historic Churches Trust (CHCT) a non denominational charity dedicated to saving Cornwall's churches & chapels for future generations.

Cornwall Historic Churches Trust Charity Registration Number 218340
www.chct.info