Weddings in the Five Alive Mission Community Fees from 1st January 2021

(Dalwood, Kilmington, Shute with Whitford, Stockland & Yarcombe Parish Churches)

Alongside the statutory (legal) fees for weddings there are a number of other associated costs. Some of these are optional by negotiation with the Minister. The Statutory fees along with the heating and wedding preparation fees should be paid and cleared 3 weeks in advance of the wedding. The 'optional extras' are cash fees to be handed to your minister or wedding coordinator to give to the organist/ ringers/ choir as appropriate at the wedding rehearsal. The vergger fee, although not optional, is to be paid in cash alongside the optional extra fees.

Statutory (legal) Fees

Reading of Banns	£31 (for banns to be read in the church you are marrying) £46 (for banns to be read in a church you are not marrying in, if applicable. I.e. if you are not marrying in your parish church, you will have to have your banns read there too – includes certificate)
Wedding Service	£464
Additional Certificate	To be confirmed - Certificates to be applied for online following May 4th 2021.

Additional Fees

Heating &amp; lighting	£25 (payable all year to spread costs)
Vergger	£25
Wedding Preparation	£30

Optional Extras

Organ	£50 *
Bells	£90 (where available)
Choir	£60 (where available)

On booking your wedding we request a deposit of £50, not refundable, but which will be deducted from the overall fees.

Fees can be paid by direct transfer to the following account:

Account name: Five Alive MCC, sort code: 400838, account number: 11282530.

* Our churches have a resident organist who will be happy to play at your wedding. If you wish to use an organist other than our resident organist the £50 fee still applies, as per Royal School of Church Music regulations.
