50 DAY
PRAYER AND FASTING

P-50 D-P & F

By Errol Jacobs

INTRODUCTION

Pentecost 50 Day Prayer and Fasting (P-50 D-P&F) is a time to ask the Lord through His Holy Spirit to bring about Revival. It starts on Resurrection Sunday and ends on Pentecost Sunday. Let us commit to call on the Lord and fast everyday for 50 days to bring about revival.

ABOUT FASTING

WHY FAST?

- Fasting was an expected discipline in the Old and New Testament eras. Moses fasted. Jesus fasted 40 days and reminded His followers to fast (Matt. 6:16–18).
- Fasting and prayer will create a more intimate relationship with Christ.
- Fasting is a biblical way to truly humble yourself in the sight of God (Psalm 35:13; Ezra 8:21). King David said, “I humble myself through fasting.”
- Fasting enables the Holy Spirit to reveal your true spiritual condition, resulting in brokenness, repentance, and a transformed life.
- Fasting can result in a dynamic personal revival in your own life—and make you a channel of revival to others.

HOW TO FAST SAFELY

As important as fasting is, you should always make sure you do not put your health at risk. Please consult your Doctor first if you want to pursue a fast, especially for longer periods. Do not skip meals if you need to take medication. God knows your heart.

HOW LONG AND WHAT TYPE OF FAST IS RIGHT FOR YOU?

John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist denomination, fasted every Wednesday and Friday and required all of his clergy to do the same. Effective ministers of God like the apostle Paul, Martin Luther, to John Calvin made it a continual part of their walk with God. Fasting is about the condition of the heart, not the number of days.

People often think the only fast is to go without food or drink for the entire period. This, however, is incorrect as there are other ways in which one can fast, particularly for those who are unable to go without food due to health conditions. A partial fast is described in the book of Daniel. Although the water fast seemed to be the custom of the prophet, there was a three-week period in which he only abstained from “delicacies,” meat, and wine (Daniel 10:3). You decide what you can safely go without as a type of fast.

You may want to give up one thing for a day, two days or a week, so it is between you and the Lord. You decide what you can safely give up for this time. You may also want to fast for a few days but keep praying for the whole 50 days. Receiving God’s blessing from a fast requires commitment. Arranging time each day with God is crucial in maintaining intimate communion with the Father. Be aware that Satan will do anything to pull you away from your Bible reading and prayer time. When you feel the enemy trying to discourage you, immediately go to God in prayer and ask Him to strengthen your resolve in the face of difficulties and temptations.

HOW TO FINISH IN A HEALTHY WAY

All the experts agree that “breaking the fast” is the critical phase of fasting. Solid food must be re-introduced very slowly. After a 50-day fast, you should make a careful transition for a few days before returning to eating meat or fats or normal foods.

May God bless you in whatever type of fast you decide to follow.

HOW TO USE THE “P-50 D-P&F”

BE COMPLETELY FOCUSED ON THE THEME FOR EACH DAY AND PRAYER SESSION

Prayer is absolutely fantastic! God answers prayer! God loves it when we spend time in prayer with Him! As true as these statements are, prayer can be very challenging and hard at times! Our minds can become distracted, other thoughts flood in, other prayer items come to mind, and sometimes we move away from what we want to pray for. Often God can urge you to pray for something else and we never want to stand in God’s way when He leads us to pray for something else. Maybe write them down and come back to them. This will allow you to stay focussed on your current daily prayer session.

PREPARATION TIME

Use this time well and allow the Holy Spirit to draw you closer into the presence of God. Take this preparation time to glorify and praise Him for who He is. Bless Him because He is Lord. Lay your life before Him and confess your sin and failures before Him. Open your heart and mind to receive from the Lord. Draw near to God in quietness and take time to say nothing and just be still.

SCRIPTURE FOR REFLECTION AND MEDITATION

During the time of being still before God, reflect and meditate on the Scriptures provided. Enjoy the closeness of the Lord’s presence. Listen to the Lord – He will speak!

ASKING GOD

This is a time for you to speak to God. This section covers certain prayer points as areas of concern and focus but it is not a comprehensive list. This will give you a starting or reference point for your time of intercession. Allow the Holy Spirit to lead you into other related areas for you to pray into. Make a concerted effort to always personalize your prayer time. Furthermore, always try to pray for people by name – remember, be specific.

BE THANKFUL

During this time, you want to show your thankfulness to the Lord. God listens and God answers! He will always answer according to His will. Let us never forget to say thank you to the Lord!

ACTION

This is an opportunity for you to decide what action you need to take. After spending time with the Lord in prayer and in His Word – there will often be something that you need to do. This can often be deeply personal and even hard to do. Be bold, obedient and TAKE ACTION!

But unless you repent, you too will all perish. 4 Or those eighteen who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them—do you think they were more guilty than all the others living in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, no! A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. 16 Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

"Yes, Lord," they replied. 29 Then he touched their eyes and said, "According to your faith let it be done to you"; and their sight was restored. Jesus warned them sternly, "See that no one knows about this."

REFLECTING & MEDITATING ON THE WORD

John 1:1 & 3

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

3 Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.

Rom 3:23-25

23 For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, 24 and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. 25 God presented Christ as a sacrifice of atonement, through the shedding of his blood to be received by faith. He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished. 18

Isaiah 53:5-6

5 But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed. 6 We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to our own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Hebrews 11:1 & 6

2 Timothy 4:2-5

2 Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction. 3 For the time will come when people will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. 4 They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths. 5 But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, discharge all the duties of your ministry.

Ephesians 6:19-20

19 Pray also for me, that whenever I speak, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it fearlessly, as I should.

16 I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, 17 so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, 18 may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, 19 and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. 20 Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, 21 to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

Romans 15:5-6

5 May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, 6 so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Timothy 3:8-13

8 In the same way, deacons are to be worthy of respect, sincere, not indulging in much wine, and not pursuing dishonest gain. 9 They must keep hold of the deep truths of the faith with a clear conscience. 10 They must first be tested; and then if there is nothing against them, let them serve as deacons. 11 In the same way, the women are to be worthy of respect, not malicious talkers but temperate and trustworthy in everything. 12 A deacon must be faithful to his wife and must manage his children and his household well. 13 Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 2:5-8

5 In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus: 6 Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; 7 rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. 8 And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death even death on a cross!

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.

Jeremiah 1:6-9

6 “Alas, Sovereign Lord,” I said, “I do not know how to speak; I am too young.” 7 But the Lord said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am too young.’ You must go to everyone I send you to and say whatever I command you. 8 Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you and will rescue you,” declares the Lord. 9 Then the Lord reached out his hand and touched my mouth and said to me, “I have put my words in your mouth.

1 Corinthians 12:4-7

4 There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit distributes them. 5 There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. 6 There are different kinds of working, but in all of them and in everyone it is the same God at work. 7 Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.

Romans 1:20-22

20 For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse. 21 For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened. 22 Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools

John 14:5-7

5 Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?" 6 Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. And by him we cry, "Abba, Father." 16 The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. 17 Now if we are children, then we are heirs heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

Ephesians 4:18-21

18 They are darkened in their understanding and separated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardening of their hearts. 19 Having lost all sensitivity, they have given themselves over to sensuality so as to indulge in every kind of impurity, and they are full of greed. 20 That, however, is not the way of life you learned 21 when you heard about Christ and were taught in him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus.

7 Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales; rather, train yourself to be godly. 8 For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come.

Psalm 1:1-2

3 For rulers hold no terror for those who do right, but for those who do wrong. Do you want to be free from fear of the one in authority? Then do what is right and you will be commended. 4 For the one in authority is God’s servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for rulers do not bear the sword for no reason. They are God’s servants, agents of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer. 5 Therefore, it is necessary to submit to the authorities, not only because of possible punishment but also as a matter of conscience. 6 This is also why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God’s servants, who give their full time to governing.

REFLECTING & MEDITATING ON THE WORD

- Listen to the Lord - He will Speak

Romans 13:1-7

1 Let everyone be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. Proverbs 14:34

Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin condemns any people.

Proverbs 31:3-7

3 Do not spend your strength on women, your vigour on those who ruin kings. 4 It is not for kings, Lemuel— it is not for kings to drink wine, not for rulers to crave beer, 5 lest they drink and forget what has been decreed, and deprive all the oppressed of their rights. 6 Let beer be for those who are perishing, wine for those who are in anguish! 7 Let them drink and forget their poverty and remember their misery no more.

James 1:5

If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you.

1 Peter 2:13-17

13 Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every human authority: whether to the emperor, as the supreme authority, 14 or to governors, who are sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to commend those who do right. 15 For it is God's will that by doing good you should silence the ignorant talk of foolish people. 16 Live as free people, but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as God's slaves. 17 Show proper respect to everyone, love the family of believers, fear God, honour the emperor.

REFLECTING & MEDITATING ON THE WORD

Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

1 Timothy 2:4-7

3 This is good, and pleases God our Saviour, 4 who wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus, 6 who gave himself as a ransom for all people. This has now been witnessed to at the proper time. 7 And for this purpose I was appointed a herald and an apostle—I am telling the truth, I am not lying—and a true and faithful teacher of the Gentiles.

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.
