

On the Road to Emmaus

On the road to Emmaus Jesus appears to two disciples who are sad that he has died and confused that the body has disappeared. The disciples think that Jesus is a pilgrim who must have witnessed Jesus' Death. During the walk Jesus listens to them as they tell him of their shattered hopes and dreams for Jesus, the prophet, who through his great and mighty works and preaching would redeem Israel. They did not believe that Jesus had been resurrected.

Jesus, still the stranger to the disciples, explains through scriptures through the Life, Death and Resurrection of Jesus he had done what people expected the Messiah to do.

Upon arriving at Emmaus the disciples welcome the stranger, who has now become the companion on the journey, to stay and prepare to spend the night with them. Jesus remains and takes bread, gives thanks, breaks it and gives it to them. It is at this moment, they realise their companion is the Risen Jesus.

We must have faith that even when we can't see God, He is still with us .

Why do you think the people on the road may not have recognised Jesus?

The world is very different for all of us at the moment and a lot of people think God has abandoned them. What evidence can you find to reassure them that He is still here?
