Count Your Blessings

Have you ever heard the Gospel hymn that goes...

*Count your blessings, Name them one by one
And you'll be surprised at what the Lord has done.*

Appreciation is the road to riches, for it helps us realise just what we have rather than always looking for more. We can be blessed in so many ways, but if we don't appreciate what we have, we can end up grumbling that we are badly done to.

It's easy to do this with our Church life, for we are rightly always looking to see what more can be done, that sometimes we can overlook all the things and people that we have to be thankful for, that contribute to our life in so many different ways. If you want to know about some of them, then read the Annual Report for Christ Church for last year (click the highlighted text if you are online, and you will see it)

The Report reveals many individuals who give considerable time and energy to keeping a whole host of activities going, and for every individual you see up front, there's likely to be another three behind the scenes doing hidden work.

You will also read about many groups and organisations that add to the quality of life of our Church and village. All these organisations can only function because someone is prepared to step forward and organise things, and the membership show loyalty to what is going on. Increasingly today, this is harder to achieve, so thank God for all these things.

You can also see how money has both come in and goes out of our Church. As the saying goes, Money is made round to go round. Give it away and it comes back to you. We have found this to be true at Christ Church over the years. I have put a list of our Charitable Giving for 2013 in Spire so you can see where it goes to. It comes roughly from three sources, almost in equal measure.

- Collections at Christenings, weddings and funerals that the PCC allow to be sent to charity. (We could keep it, as some Churches do, but greater good can be achieved this way.)
- From special Appeals and fundraising in Church throughout the year i.e. Harvest Appeal for Syrian Refugees, Philippine Hurricane Appeal, the Christmas Appeal for A Way Out and the Charity Auction.

- From Church Income. The PCC agree to give away at least 10% of our Income to Mission and Charities, in addition to the two previous categories.

On top of this, Christ Church has also offered to pay to the Diocese this year £82,500 as our contribution to the Diocesan Budget. This means that another Parish that can't afford a Vicar can now have one.

Giving generously of money, time and talents only really starts when we have a profound realisation of what God has already done for us - of how rich we are in life. The more we realise this, the more we will want to do as our response to what God has done for us. We've not arrived and we're not perfect, but counting our blessings is one way of realising our riches and being moved to do more for others.

The Season of Lent starts this month on 5th March with Ash Wednesday. Over the period can I call all readers of Spire to spend a moment thinking of just one new thing each day to be thankful for, and a way we can do something positive in return to someone else. It doesn't have to be all big things. Remember, the ocean is made up of drops.

Have a Happy Lent

Paul

"Streams in the Desert" Praying for Egypt

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

This year we are holding our LENT SOUP LUNCH on THURSDAY, 27th MARCH, in the Christ Church Hall from 12.30 - 1.30 pm.

Tickets @ £6 are available from committee members and also will be on sale at our coffee morning on 26th February.

Jancie Brown (01642 723873)

House to house collection

The Children's Society annual house to house collection will not take place in the village this year. It has become increasingly difficult to find collectors over recent years and, with no-one able or willing to take over the task of co-ordinator, I have decided to call it a day.

I would like to thank all those who have collected for me over the years – eleven of them for more than twenty years. I know that a collection has been held in the village since the 1950's as I have collected since that time. Thank you to all of you who have supported us over the years.

Marina Charlton

CHRIST CHURCH MEN'S GROUP

Thursday 6th March at 7ish in the Royal Oak.

We welcome our very own Rob Pepper who will be sharing some stories about 'A Way Out' - how it started, what's its ethos, who needs it and some success stories.

Mothers' Union News

The Theme for this year is "Sowing a Future Together". We held our Annual General Meeting on 5th February chaired by Paul, our Vicar. A good few members attended despite the very wet day. We would welcome any new members and especially anyone to join the Committee as at the moment there are only 3 members on the Committee and a Branch cannot be run with these few numbers.

5th March Our meeting will start at 1.30pm with a short service of Holy Communion in Church for members who find it difficult to come to any other Service. At 2.00pm our speaker will be Betty Brown on "My Wonderful Life" and anyone is welcome to join us.

7th March Woman's World Day of Prayer at 2pm at the Friends

2nd April Bill Master on Gilbert & Sullivan.

Lynda Walker

Make a Mother's Day By buying a Mothering Sunday ethical gift you could help transform many lives both in this country and abroad.

Ethical "gifts" include:-

£4 - provides basic emergency supplies distributed by members of Mothers' Union at times of need in disasters.

£10 - helps equip Mothers' Union members with skills in training and resources to start local projects and programmes abroad eg. running marriage courses and working in prisons.

£15 - helps train someone to read for the first time as part of the Literacy Programme.

If you take part in this annual campaign you will be supporting the work of Mothers' Union around the world. Every gift enables the lives of countless families to be changed for the better. It is hoped that nationally over £170,000 will be raised for vital projects worldwide.

Please contact Angela Jaques 722979 if you are interested by 16th March 2014.

Could This be You?

Last year we held a short course at Christ Church for all who would like to learn more about God's love through Jesus Christ and what it means to be a disciple.

This is what some of the people who came had to say afterwards:

Jean & George Robinson wrote, 'Although we were apprehensive about joining a 'bible' group, we thoroughly enjoyed the experience. It enabled us to meet and share our thoughts with young and older people at different stages of their Christian Journey. Led by Geoff and Margaret we started to discover more about ourselves, more about God and more about each other whilst sharing thoughts and fellowship.'

Dawn McNamara, Go for it! Are the eight weeks over already? It seems only a week ago that we first got together. That first week I was excited to attend as well as feeling a little nervous as I wasn't sure what to expect - would it be too advanced for me? Would it answer my burning questions?

Well I shouldn't have worried as it really has been a pleasure to mix with others who are all on different stages of their Christian journey and I feel I have made 11 new friends. It has been the catalyst I have been looking for and I am grateful to Geoff and Margaret for their support. It hasn't answered all my burning questions as I now realise it isn't quite as straightforward as that! What is exciting for me is that this is the start of my new path and I now feel able to move forward, learning and developing as I go.

Robin Hazell said, I certainly had misgivings about joining a faith group, based on my negative experience of organised, pushy religion as a child.

However as that was 50 years ago I went into it with an open mind and was duly rewarded. The leadership was gently purposeful and persuasive and combined with friendship and support of other members produced a reassuring and productive environment. I realised I was not the only one with doubts and questions.. Definitely to be recommended.

Vicky Gawthorpe says: As a Mum, it is often hard to find time to stop and think but the group gave me this opportunity. In a quiet and relaxed atmosphere I was able to familiarise myself with the Bible and the Church. It has been nice to get to know people that I've seen at church.

If you would like to:

- Learn more about the Christian faith
- Join with others for fellowship along the Way
- Refresh what you learned before
- Explore the Christian story in a friendly open environment
- Brush up on the Basics

then maybe our 2014 Pilgrim group is for you!

CHARITY AUCTION RAISES £900

A good crowd turned out for this year's Charity Auction in aid of Roseberry School in India.

Tables packed with goods were auctioned off with a full afternoon of activity.

The most curious item was a pair of ladies red briefs with suspenders attached. We have no idea who sent them, and they created a lot of jollity, but my solicitor recommends I don't disclose who bought them!!

Helen Jones, who founded Roseberry School in Darjeeling spoke about the charity and the great need for education in that area to help the children escape poverty.

When I sent an email out with the initial figure of £831 raised on the afternoon, Helen responded "That is absolutely magnificent. Before enjoying the real live experience, I could not have believed it would be possible. Thank you so very very much for your support. I enjoyed meeting everyone too."

However, the total soon grew and some more donations came in. When I was at Guisborough Salvation Army doing a talk with my puppets the following Tuesday, they were talking about it there too, as some ladies had been. They kindly took another collection for the project, so our Grand Total Raised was actually £900.

A brilliant effort. Well done to all who supported, and to all other Charities and Churches, this really is a good, fun way of raising funds. Its not copyright, but will it be copied right?

Easy Fund Raising - at no cost to you!

Ken, our Treasurer is a happy man - well, even happier than usual, for he has found a new way that we can raise funds for Christ Church that doesn't cost us a penny!

It's not a trick or a con, but a new online way of raising funds by going through <http://www.easyfundraising.org.uk/> before you make a purchase online. Many sellers donate anything up to 3% of the price to a Charity of your choice. You will find many charities there, and some other local ones too, and Christ Church is amongst them.

Here's what you do. Log on to the website above and register with then. Then search for Christ Church Great Ayton as the cause you wish to support. Then when next buying anything online, go through Easyfundraising first, and our Church will be credited with a donation from your purchase.

I use Internet Explorer, and it installed a little toolbar on mine that tells me what Christ Church has raised in total and what I have raised as part of that. From buying two CDs, I have now raised 45p of the £1.01 credited to Christ Church.

This website has already raised over £6m for charities.

Check it out on our website www.christchurchgreatayton.org.uk

Concert 7.30pm Sunday 6th April
Michelmas Singers, dir. Thomas Neal
Les Chansonniers
L'HOMME ARMÉ

The choir will be joined by Les Chansonniers, an early music quintet based at York that performs songs and dances (mostly of 16th century French origin) on the instruments of the day.

This year is the centenary of the outbreak of the First World War, which is the prompt for a concert that reflects on various aspects of military conflict. It starts with the French song of the title (The Armed Man), which made its first appearance around 1453.

Protection against rising funeral costs'

Michael Rea from Ayton & District Funeral Service says.....between 2004 and 2013 the average cost of a funeral in the UK rose from £1,920 to £3,456 (a Mintel report June 2013.) an increase of 80%

Paying in advance for your funeral is a sensible decision that will save money and benefits your family or estate.

(In 2000, if you put £1,215 (average cost of a funeral then) into a building society, you would have seen it grow to only £1,438.57 over the next 12 years. Taking the average cost of a funeral now, £3,456, your family would have to find an additional of between £1800 & £2000 at what is a very difficult time.

Unlike saving, when the time comes, one phone call to your selected funeral director will activate your plan, which would relieve the stress of organising funds and making detailed arrangements.

You can also transfer the plan to anyone in your family. If you wish for your plan to be for a family member, and if the wishes of the plan remain the same, it is simply transferred. (Possible additional costs that may incur for example is if burial is preferred rather than cremation)

On the 1st April, and to reflect the yearly increase in funeral related costs experienced by all (Independent) Funeral Directors, funeral plans are set to rise between £200 & £300, depending on the chosen plan & Funeral Director of choice.

Heard from Malcolm Race: A Funeral Director was on TV talking about all the different things now requested at Funeral Services. He exclaimed, "We are now having to think outside the box!"

YORKSHIRE CANCER RESEARCH

Keeping the Blessing Rolling

Last year, in response to our Harvest initiative of Passing on a Blessing, Jackie Gough from Leven Flowers donated 10% of all flower Arrangements ordered for Mothers' Day to Marie Curie Cancer Care. The idea worked well, so she is doing it again this year, and this year supporting Yorkshire Cancer Research who also do wonderful work in finding a cure for cancer.

If you would like to book a bouquet with Jackie, please phone 07816 458 311, email jackie@levenflowers.co.uk or visit her website www.levenflowers.co.uk.

Jackie is also available for flowers for Weddings, Celebrations, Funerals and Corporate events, and lives in Great Ayton just around the corner from Christ Church.

News from the Diocese

The Archbishop has announced that the Bishop of Beverly will now support parishes in the Diocese who are not in agreement with the Ordination of Women. This now means that the next Bishop of Whitby can be chosen from those supportive of Women's Ministry. An appointment will be made later this year. We look forward to welcoming our new Bishop and extend our thanks to Paul Ferguson, Archdeacon of Cleveland, who has kept the plates spinning in the meantime.

Vacancies Nunthorpe, Brookfield with Stainton and Hilton and Guisborough Parishes have all been advertising for new Vicars. Let us hope and pray that they have had plenty of good applicants so these positions can be filled soon.

Revd Canon Peter Jones, who was Vicar here 1990 - 1992, has now taken on a House for Duty Position within York City Centre Churches.

Moving Revd Malcolm Jackson is moving from Kirkleatham Parish to be Associate Priest and Missioner in the Whitby Team, and the Vicar of Marske, Revd Janet Fife, is taking early retirement.

Archdeaconry Lay Development & Training Advisor

The Archbishop has appointed Canon Angela Bailey as the new Lay Development & Training Advisor for the Cleveland Archdeaconry. This role was last filled by David Boase, Vicar of Kirkby, before he moved to USA around 8 years ago!

Angela will have plenty to do, but brings with her a great range of experience from Parish and Chaplaincies, is a former Rural Dean, and most importantly of all, is a very nice person. We wish her well.

SNOWDROPS

A welcome sight
In green and white.
"Aren't they lovely!"
Said a lady.
Wind told snowdrops to agree,
So nodded their heads obsequiously.
"How many more springs will I see?"
Snowdrops nodded - two or three.

Malcolm's Bits and Bobs

On a sign for the town of Crook of Devon, which is in Perth and Kinross, some wag wrote: "Twinned with the Thief of Baghdad."

A pair of public lavatories on the seafront at Westcliff-On-Sea, Essex, were closed and then redeveloped as a restaurant – called "Toulouse." Meanwhile, in Kirby Lonsdale, two public lavatories were refurbished and one was split into two, one half becoming an art gallery. Its name ? The Loovre.

On a trip to County Mayo, a couple became hopelessly lost. The wife stopped the car and inquired of a young local boy, "Excuse me, how do you get to Ballina ?" He replied: "My cousin takes me."

A teacher recalled taking a cookery class when a pupil told her: "I likes making dough, miss. It cleans yer hands lovely." Commented the teacher: "I withheld this remark until members of staff had eaten all the scones offered by the girls."

An elderly motorist recalled that a flight manual for a Lancaster bomber in 1943 was approximately 20 pages long with minimal text. His family saloon handbook from 2009 had more than 300 pages. "I cannot figure out how to programme the radio, let alone get it to fly," he commented.

Moses wandered the desert for 40 years. Someone suggested: "A woman would have asked for directions."

A vicar was visiting another church and as he walked down the aisle with the churchwarden he observed : "Not many people here. Did you tell them I was coming ?" Replied the churchwarden;"No, but you know how word gets around."

A schoolboy was asked by a friend : "What is a granny ?" The solemn reply was: "A granny is an old lady who sits by the fire and stops your Mum hittin' you."
