A Summer to Remember

What will you remember this summer for? Perhaps you have been watching Team GB win even more medals in the Rio Olympics despite predictions that we wouldn't match London 2012. Well done to all our athletes for doing so well, and to all from other countries who have achieved as well, and to Brasil for hosting the Games. I still think the Queen & James Bond sketch takes some beating!

I will remember this summer as being the busiest one for weddings that I can remember since being ordained. At the time of writing I am about to do No. 27, with another 15 still to come! It has made for a very busy time, but also for a hugely enjoyable time and the privilege of being part of so many special occasions. My thanks to the team of vergers and musicians who help me at both Christ Church and Saint Oswald's, and for the wider team of venues, photographers & videographers, florists, coach and car companies and wedding contacts. To make a day special is a team effort, and it is great to see so many folk working hard together to make it so.

What has been especially rewarding has been seeing so many of the young people and their families come to worship before the wedding as they qualify - and then continue to attend afterwards. Saint Oswald's in particular has proved to be a hidden gem for weddings and has become very popular.

A driver outside Church recently said I must be able to afford a good holiday with all the weddings. The Diocese and the Churches certainly are benefiting financially, but in the Church of England all clergy are paid exactly the same whether they do 4 or 40 weddings a year. I don't do all this extra work for money, but for the joy of passing something on to others as to how much God loves them. To hear from so many couples afterwards that they were bowled over by the welcome they received by people at Church and that they enjoyed the experience of coming to worship is a great reward.

Wedding numbers may be down a little next year. As this year has been so busy I haven't made it to all the wedding fairs locally but will be up and running again soon, so that people know the Church is alive and active and a good place to be. If you come to either Church and see a young wedding couple sat near you, please do your part by speaking to them and making them feel at home. It is now their Church too.

Recognised Parish Assistants

The latest Recognised Parish Assistant Course finished recently, and included four members of Christ Church - Enid Sedgwick and Lesley Miller (Front right) and Rob & Nicky Pepper who were on holiday when the final session took place.

RPA's are ordinary people from congregations who want to do more in their Churches, and after a period of preparation are commissioned within their own Church. We shall Commission our RPA's on Sunday 25th September at the 9.15am service . Enid (Pastoral & Prayer) Nicky (Pastoral) Lesley (Ministry to children) Rob (worship) and all four of them will be part of our LYSIG initiative in Christening follow through. Please come and support them. They join Rosemary Wheway (Pastoral) in helping in this role.

Saltburn is So Bracing

Another great morning together for many of our Church families on Saltburn beach. 22 adults & 19 youngsters from Sunday School, Dads, Fishes & 'Come & Praise' enjoyed the simple pleasures of a dry, warm, breezy day - digging holes, chasing balls, paddling, chatting and generally having fun!

CHURCH HALL RENOVATION

As many of you will be aware in 2015 we received a grant under the 'Awards for All' scheme run by the National Lottery. We used the grant to undertake a feasibility study into renovating the Church Hall and Coffee Lounge. This work was completed by DKS architects of Stokesley.

It is now our intention to take this one step further by applying to the National Lottery for a grant to complete this work. Part of the application requires us to show that there is a need for this work to be done. We plan to hold a presentation meeting open to all to inform everyone about the proposals and ask for opinions on various aspects of the proposals. We have already sent out invitations to all hall users but would welcome individuals on the night as well. Wine or soft drinks and nibbles will be provided. A short questionnaire will be available at the back of the Church in early September. If you would like to fill this in then please take this opportunity to help us make the most of this application.

Phil Rotherham lowering the hatch position. It is important that we keep up with jobs in the Hall, as there is no guarantee of success and the application will take a while.

The Somme Remembered

We gathered on Sunday 24th July at 2pm in Christ Church to remember together four of the men from our village who had died 100 years ago that week - two of them in the Battle of The Somme - and we were joined by family members of the West and Peacock Families.

Ian Pearce gave very interesting and informative visual presentations on all four men with information gathered by the History Group and some of the families.

As this worked so well, we are grouping the four men in September together. These occasions are well worth attending and are open to all.

THE OSILIGI MAASAI TROUPE PERFORM IN CONCERT
AT ST. MARY MAGDALENE CHURCH YARM
ON SUNDAY 18th SEPTEMBER AT 4pm

As part of their fourteenth annual UK charity tour, the Osiligi Maasai warriors will be performing in concert at St Magdalene Church Yarm on Sunday 18th September at 4pm

The troupe, (five men and two ladies), are stunning performers, and thrill every audience between the ages of 5-95 Certainly every venue has found their performance an experience never to be forgotten. We have performed in countless venue , including the Cathedrals of Exeter, Salisbury, Peterborough and Ely (4 times) theatres, schools and universities.

The tours have created a wonderful story. They, and the charity which stemmed from them, have taken the Troupe and their community, some 30 miles Southwest of Nairobi, from the total poverty, they used to endure in 2002.They now have corrugated iron houses, instead of mud huts, in which to live, fresh clean water at three points in their community, solar lamps instead of kerosene, a new church, and, most wonderfully, a new village school. Last year saw the completion of a new clinic, and this year the new orphanage will open.

Please look at our website www.osiligi.org or www.osiligiobaya.org

Entry is free (first come first served) with a retiring collection

The performance is fully narrated so everyone knows what is going on. It consists of song and movement, and, of course, jumping, for which the Maasai are famous , and there are opportunities for audience participation ! There will also be time for a Q and A session

It s a wonderful, unique experience which will never be forgotten or repeated.
Not to be missed !!

Open Gardens

On behalf of Herriot Hospice Homecare I would like to thank everyone who attended Great Ayton Open Gardens. The event raised £3,271 for this worthwhile cause. Many thanks to all those who helped.

A Call to All Great Ayton Businesses

Great Ayton's businesses' are being encouraged to get together to support and benefit from the village's newly-formed Business Forum. Great Ayton Business Forum was formed to build on the huge sense of community resulting from this year's Tour de Yorkshire which brought so many visitors to experience our lively, vibrant village.

Amelia Herbert, manager of Watkins Wright Hair salon, is the prime encourager behind the Forum and is keen for all businesses to pull together for the village to make the most of its assets and facilities.

As well as the village shopkeepers, and invitation is extended to all businesses based in our village so we can work together to benefit all. We had a great response from the business community when it was the Tour de Yorkshire and many of them benefited from the event. We want to build on that success to ensure that Great Ayton continues to provide a great service to residents and visitors alike," Amelia explained. "There are lots of opportunities to showcase the village and bring in new customers - and we want to give every business, whatever its size or function, a chance to be part of these events.

"I appreciate that not everyone will want or be able to attend Forum meetings, although they are a great way to network with other local people and even pick up business, but it would be great if they were happy to support it in other ways, such as helping at an event, offering some funding or donating prizes for raffles. We would welcome help in any form."

The next event to be organised by Great Ayton Business Forum, in conjunction with the parish council, will be a village-wide Festive Fair on November 26th when the Christmas lights will be switched on. There will be a Christmas market where local people can sell their goods - so if you produce handmade goods, crafts or food, please get in touch with Amelia.

You can find out more about GABF (Great Ayton Business Forum) by sending your contact details and information about your business to Amelia at info@greataytonbusinessforum.co.uk

Richard & Amelia getting ready for Christmas

Saint Oswald's Day

Each year since 2007, we have celebrated our Patron Saint of St Oswald's with a service at Newton Church and a Picnic afterwards in the memorial garden.

We had 55 people present in Church for the service, comprised of regulars, villagers and many wedding families. Most joined us afterwards for a super picnic on a rather blustery day. You were wise to keep your plate stocked with food to save it blowing away!

It was good to welcome friends old and new, and many thanks to the team who worked hard to get things ready for service and picnic, and to Neal Waters for his much appreciated Portaloo.

From the Co-op to China for Clic Sargent

Regulars to Great Ayton Co-op will know Chloe as a very personable young lady who serves them. Did you know she is going to walk the Great Wall of China for Charity? Here is her story.

Hello I am Chloe.

On the 8th October this year I will be trekking some of The Great Wall of China for a charity very close to my heart Clic Sargent- helping children and young people with cancer. I wanted to do something different and something that will be a challenge for myself. I want to make myself proud and show people that you can achieve anything you want after cancer.

This is why...

When I was just under 2 years old I was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer, changing my life forever. Everybody needs support and reassurance in these circumstances. Clic Sargent were there for me and very much for my family! They offered full time support physically, emotionally and financially.

Since this time in my life my Grandad has organised a golf day every year in aid of Clic Sargent which is such an inspiring achievement! I've been thinking for a while about how I can give them my gratitude and what I can do to raise money for this charity. Now that I am 20 I thought it's about time!! I will be there for my 21st which was very daunting at first but now I think it will be an amazing experience. This is because I will know the money I am raising is going to help other children and families going through this difficult time.

Throughout the summer I will be raising money by doing different events. So far I have done a few tombolas in local co ops (Great Ayton and Stokesley), a colour fun run and I organised a charity night which included live music, pie and peas supper, a raffle and a bar. This raised £3,230!! Over the next few months I am hoping to do another tombola and possibly a cake stall.

Thank you so much in taking your time in reading this I really appreciate it!

Chloe Brown

Come on readers of Spire, let's see what we can do to support this very courageous young lady. You can sponsor Chloe, either by going into Great Ayton Co-op and make a donation there, or click on <https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/chloe-brown24>

Bikes Recycled

Around 50 of the bikes painted to decorate the village for the Tour de Yorkshire have been collected by a firm that cleans and restores bikes to use in bike libraries in other parts of the county. Some are good enough to be used complete, and others will be taken as spares. The idea of a bike library is that you can borrow a bike for the holidays or for work, thus helping out people in some poorer areas that otherwise couldn't afford one, and helping to get people active.

The bikes were picked up on Low Green in August and Amelia saw them off, as the final touch to a super Tour de Yorkshire celebration.

The bikes taken are destined for bike libraries in Barnsley, Hull and Leeds, so bikes are going from North Yorkshire, to South, East and West Yorkshire!

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

The recent "Punch & Puds" evening with a demonstration and tasting by Quorn was very successful - it was well attended and the demonstrator and her assistant were very accomplished. It was interesting to learn the history of the Quorn product and to taste the dishes which had been cooked during the evening. A total of £470 was raised which was excellent.

Advance notice: The "Cards for Christmas" coffee morning will take place on Saturday, 15th October.

Concert Success

St Oswald's hosted another super summer concert of a wide variety of music with Martin Dack on piano and singers Miranda Francis and David Carter singing many well loved songs.

The audience enjoyed a super evening. Many thanks to the team for organising the event which also raised £1,000 for Church Funds.
