JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR

It's 50 years ago this year since the Lloyd-Webber Musical Jesus Christ Superstar first came out. Theatres were packed full of people hearing the Easter story in a lively modern way.

I was just in my early teens at the time, and to young people this was terrific. At Saint Peter's Church in Redcar, the Youth Club mimed the story to the music in Church several times to much acclaim. Someone took their music centre into Church and the hard part was getting the needle to hit the bit between tracks, for this was long before CDs, let alone MP3s.

When I was a curate 37 Lents ago, I held a 7am Communion Service for young people with a Superstar track and a short talk and we had 24+ people attend. This was the inspiration for our Get Up With God Services which have sadly come to an end. Godspell had come out the following year, so that was two Lents sorted.

This year for Lent the York Courses are using Jesus Christ Superstar as the basis of the talks, so I have purchased it again from iTunes, as I can't play my LPs any more. Bishop David Wilbourne has written the course booklet, and if his Lent Course for us last year is anything to go by, we are in for a challenging and enjoyable journey. Why not join us? You can find details of when and where we will meet and new folk are always welcome. Each session is stand alone.

I am also going to indulge myself this Holy Week and will use Jesus Christ Superstar to hang our thoughts on for the Good Friday Devotion. Those of my age and older will have their own memories of Superstar, and to the younger generation a treat is in store. I haven't quite decided which of the songs to feature, but Mary Magdalene singing I don't know how to love him will be there with Herod's song and Jesus in Gethsemane.

Come along and join us

The Archbishop invites us to use his Pilgrimage Prayer as our prayer for Come and See

Father in Heaven, mould me into Christlikeness;
and stir up in me,
the fire of your love.

Holy Spirit,
fill me with your power;
and help me to tell
of the love and salvation
in Jesus of Nazareth.

Lord Jesus Christ,
Son of the Father,
renew my friendship in you;
and help me to serve you

with a quiet mind
and a burning spirit.

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
please keep me
in the joy, simplicity, and compassion of your holy Gospel. Amen.

A Peaceful Night

Over recent years several people have chosen to come into All Saints Church on Low Green for the night before their funeral service. All Saints offers an oasis of peace steeped in the prayers of our Ancestors for around 1000 years.

Faith Smallwood was the latest person to do this, as she had always enjoyed our services in All Saints during summer months.

With the present way of going to the crematorium first before returning for a Service of Thanksgiving most people won't have seen the lovely woollen coffin that Faith had. Its softness and gentleness reflected her character. If interested, please ask our village Funeral Director for details.

We do not make a charge for this, but any donations to All Saints are always appreciated to help maintain it.

Poorhouse Has a New Start

One of Great Ayton's historic properties on the High Street has taken on a new lease of life. The Poorhouse stands by the Captain Cook Schoolroom Museum, the place where James Cook was taught as a child.

The Poorhouse was built in 1768 with funds raised by generous benefactors in the village to support the homeless.

For many years it has been a private residence, but has stood empty over recent years until acquired by Mike and Cherie Larkin who have lovingly restored it over an 18 month period.

A walk along our High Street over recent months will have seen skip loads of rubble being removed and quality oak beams going into the building, imaginatively extending it by incorporating some of the outside into the inside.

The outside yard also goes behind Watkins-Wright Hairdressers, giving those having their hair done a lovely place to visit.

The Toilet for the Disabled is most luxurious and functional and is the former outhouse in the yard.

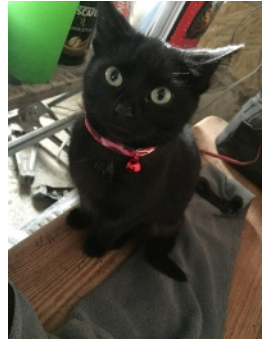

Inside the Poorhouse has turned into a lovely cafe-bar where you can stop for a drink and something light to eat.

The roaring fire at the front gives a wonderful welcome, which is added to by the smiles of the staff. Come inside and see the changes made and enjoy something to eat and drink.

Star of the Poorhouse is Cookie the cat, the last resident, who was born in the outhouse but is taking well to all the visitors coming to visit. I believe she now has her own Instagram Page!

Great Ayton is most fortunate in having an increasing range of places to go to eat and drink, from the full formal meal to a light snack and drink, offering something for people of different tastes and bringing many more to visit our village.

I have promised myself that I will get out to our Micro Pubs and do a feature in Spire on them too. Photo by Barbara Saunders

Pictured below the beautiful inglenook fireplace before and after. The Poorhouse also features many nautical items paying tribute to Captain Cook.

Storm Dennis Leaves His Mark

Our local area has fared very well in recent storms compared to some of the country where folks have been flooded yet again. Storm Ciara came and went, but the following week Dennis made quite an impact at Christ Church.

On the Saturday evening we had a sustained hailstorm with lightning for around 5 minutes. When it finished I heard a noise like a loud groan and didn't realise what it was until 20 minutes later when Sue Crombie came to say a tree had blown down blocking the Church drive.

Thankfully the Church Hall was empty so no one arriving for dances or functions, and the hail had sent folk scurrying indoors.

The tree fell straight down the path without causing any damage. The trunk had split into two many years ago and the rain had rotted where they joined causing a weakness.

Sunday morning I was at Stokesley taking their 8am Service and my phone was buzzing in my pocket like a demented wasp. I called back after the service and David Fox was on offering to take the tree away with the assistance of a friend with a chainsaw.

I saw them starting at 10.30am as I passed on my way to St Oswald's, and when I returned the tree had all but gone. To David and AJ a very big thank you. As they say in Scotland,

Lang may yer lumb reek.

NEWS

PCC Secretary Needed Unfortunately, after just one year in role, Tamzin has secured full time employment and is no longer able to commit herself to being PCC Secretary, so we are once again looking for a replacement. This role involved assisting in the preparation of Agendas, attending Standing Committee and PCC Meetings, taking the Minutes and ensuring correct procedures are followed at the Annual Parochial Church Meeting. Having a good Secretary takes a great weight off the Chairman. Could it be you? You need to be on the PCC, and to do that you first have to be on the Electoral Roll which is being revised at the moment.

PCC Members Needed We need more people to stand for the Church Council and as Deanery Synod Representatives. It would be good for Great Ayton to have as many younger people as Newton's PCC! Could it be you? Please sign up for the Electoral Roll if you are not already on it.

Rear Car Park being resurfaced. The PCC have arranged for the rear car park behind the Church Hall to be resurfaced as it was getting very uneven. The front car park will eventually follow, but doing something about replacing the lighting in Church is more urgent, as it is not bright enough, expensive to run, and using bulbs that are due to be phased out in a couple of years time.

Easter Flowers

We have some Easter flower arrangements available for sponsorship. Suggested amount of £30 to be given to Marina, and details of the person or occasion remembered will be added to a laminated card. Please contact:-

Christ Church:

Marina Charlton 01642 723 087.

It is a nice way of remembering loved ones or giving thanks for special occasions, and it helps enhance our Easter worship and gives joy to lots of people.

Malcolm's Musings

Reporting a pilgrimage to Walsingham, led by a bishop, the local paper told readers: "Afterwards the Bishop walked among the crowd eating their sandwiches."

A former Archbishop of Canterbury recalled how on one occasion, years ago, he visited the Community of the Resurrection at Mirfield, West Yorkshire, by bus. As they neared the stop, the conductor shouted in a broad Yorkshire tone 'All gerroff for t' Resurrection."

When Frank Muir, late comedy writer, was serving with the RAF in Iceland, the light van he was driving broke down. He reported: that "his Commer had come to a full stop."

"How old are you? "Seven." "When will you be eight?" "On my birthday."

A customer in an Australian off-licence was asked if he wanted his bottle chilled or room temperature. "Doesn't matter," he replied, "I only want to hit a bloke with it!"

Notice in the grill room of a Baghdad hotel: 'Steaks and chops will be grilled before our customers."

Nurses have been advised by the Royal College of Nursing not to address women as "ladies" or old people as "pensioners" "to avoid causing unwitting offence."
