Readings

I Corinthians 13: 8 - 13
Read by Elise

Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. For now we see in a mirror, dimly,[a] but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

I John 4 19 - 21
Read by Craig

We love because he first loved us. Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

There will be a collection in memory of Ann in support of SAMARITANS who are helping many more people struggling due to the pressures of Coronavirus.

If you wish to donate, please either send a cheque payable to Great Ayton PCC or pay by BACS into the Church Account putting 'ABrowne' as a reference.

Church Sort code: 09-01-55 Account No: 37616705

We will then be able to let the family know how much has been collected.
