CALLED TO GROW
Planning toolkit
INTRODUCTION

Can you picture your church in 20 years’ time?

Across the Diocese we long to see people to know and love God.

Whatever our context, whatever our tradition, we can always step back and review what we do already and where we might want to move forward.

This toolkit is designed to guide you and your church as you go on this journey of discovery and growth.

It is our prayer that we will encounter the Holy Spirit working in all sorts of unexpected ways as we pray and ponder, prioritise and plan.

Bishop Simon Burton-Jones

STEP 1

Who are we?

As a church, within our community

When he describes the Kingdom of God, one of the comparisons Jesus uses is that of a mustard seed; so small as to seem insignificant, yet which grows into a tree where life flourishes.
It is easy to make assumptions about your church and community which, if wrong, will lead you into missional activities which will not lead to growth.

The more information you have, the more successful any resulting plans will be.

In listening to God, our community, and our church, we are seeking to answer the following questions: Why does our church exist? What does our church do?

This is the step most often missed out by churches when planning for mission, however, is the most crucial.

IN PRACTICE

There are many tools and ideas for how you can complete this step. Below are some examples:

1. Take a ‘drone view of the church and its local community. What are the barriers to people being part of the church? What are the ways that people have come to church? (See our ‘How to’ section for a full list of questions.)

2. Plot the history of the church and the local community on a path. What have been the major events affecting the people? What have been the highs and the lows?

3. Plot your strengths and weaknesses as well the opportunities and threats on a simple grid – also called a SWOT analysis. (see How to section)

4. Use data collected internally, such as Statistics for Mission, the Electoral Roll, the accounts, any surveys which have been carried out to give you a full picture of your church.

5. List Resources (personnel, financial, buildings and grounds, relational, networks, reputation...).

6. Draw up time usage sheets - how are time and resources being spent? Is it being used efficiently?

7. Conduct a ‘Toblerone’ matrix to list all the things you do as a church.

PRAYER

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your people and kindle in us the fire of your love.

All who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God and fellow-heirs with Christ.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your people.

Renew the face of your creation, Lord, pouring on us the gifts of your Spirit, and kindle in us the fire of your love.

For the creation waits with eager longing for the glorious liberty of the children of God.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your people and kindle in us the fire of your love.

cf Romans 8
COMMUNICATION

This is a great opportunity to get the whole church and local community involved, as you explore who you are. There will also be a greater chance of everyone owning the Called to Grow Plan. Here are some ideas you might like to try:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Step</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>Introduce Called Together in a format which church members will find accessible.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>Set up prayer stations which ask people to engage with questions about where there is life in the Church, where there is darkness, what they are excited or hopeful about.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>Allow for both open and confidential feedback through, for example, a prayer wall and prayer box.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>Hold a prayer vigil, ‘boiler room’ or 24/7 prayer for a weekend or week. Why not choose a significant time in the Church year, such as Pentecost or your patronal festival?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>Put up a large ‘blob church’ diagram in the church. Invite people to sticker, or colour a part of, the ‘blob person’ they most identify with. www.blobtree.com</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>Meet with your community, the businesses, schools, groups and organisations, residents and civic offices, as well as the local churches. Let them know what you are doing.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>Get involved in local Facebook groups and community apps. A great way to connect with your community in an informal way.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8</td>
<td>Send a questionnaire out to local people, asking how they view the church, what they need from you, and what they may wish to contribute. Be prepared for responses you don’t like, but you do respond to them as it is you who asked the questions.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9</td>
<td>Hold Bible studies, parish weekends, or give sermons with a focus on bringing the church community together to discuss who they are as Church.</td>
</tr>

“It is our prayer that we will encounter the Holy Spirit working in all sorts of unexpected ways as we pray and ponder, prioritise and plan.”

Bishop Simon Burton-Jones
STEP 2

It is recommended that, after all the information has been gathered in Step 1, a small group is formed. The purpose of the small group is to sift through the information, interpret it and work out the key details and points for action. During this stage, broad aims or perhaps a vision statement will emerge to be decided upon.

IN PRACTICE

1. The group should be small enough to make decisions, but large enough to reflect the church members and include different personalities, gifts and styles.

2. The group could include the incumbent and other clergy, Licensed Lay Ministers, as well as other lay members who will broaden the personality and skill set of the group.

3. Don’t forget to include voices who might be willing to challenge or take an alternative view!

4. Choose a person who will coordinate (or chair) the group. This does not have to be the incumbent.

5. Notes of each meeting should be taken so that views are heard and recorded, and action points are available for the next meeting.

6. Decide upon three or four meeting dates, as well as the times and duration of meetings, so all group members can attend and understand their commitment.

PRAYER

Almighty God,
you have given your Holy Spirit to the Church to lead us into all truth:
bless with the Spirit’s grace and presence the members of this (planning group?);
keep us/them steadfast in faith and united in love,
that we/they may manifest your glory and prepare the way of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
COMMUNICATION

It is really important to take the opportunity to keep people informed about what you have learned and what you have achieved so far. Here are some ideas you might like to try:

1. Explain to the whole church that this group has been appointed to consider all the information gathered and to discern what God is saying to the church through this.

2. Commission the members within a service, including congregational prayers for them.

3. Tell the church what the timescale is so they know when they will hear the outcome of the discussions.

4. If it is the church’s practice, you may want to have the photos or names of the members of the group on a notice board with an invitation to pray for the group.

5. Write a parish magazine article, place information on your website or social media channels to share what you are doing.

6. Share the resulting mission and vision statements with the church, doing so in a celebratory way.

STEP 3

What now?

To be the church we need to be within our community.
Now that you have worked out what your church is, what it is called to be, and what its broad aims are for the future, it is now time to turn the aims into priorities.

It is tempting to think that priorities must be new initiatives or projects, but this does not have to be the case. You may also come up with the priority of stopping something and closing it down well.

It is recommended the same small group carries out this task, building upon the knowledge they have gained as a group and the discussions they have already had.

IN PRACTICE

1. Create priorities that are Specific Measurable Achievable Realistic Timed (SMART). You may want to take an ‘away morning’ to do this, but make sure food is available!

2. Develop between three and five priorities based upon the aims already developed; they should also relate to the Called Together core themes and have growth as their focus.

3. Use your SMART priorities to plan activities that will fulfil those priorities in more detail.

4. Consider the implications of each outcome for the established congregation. Something being difficult or unpopular should not necessarily put you off doing it, if it is the right thing to do.

5. Think about whether further teaching might be required for the congregation for the initiatives to be successful, and any further training for staff members, volunteers.

SCRIPTURE

Nehemiah 3
Esther (planning and process, importance of prayer)
2 Chronicles 17, 19 (Jehoshaphat, a careful strategic planner who identifies key priorities)
Luke 13.6-9 (parable of the fig tree, if there is no fruit, cut it down)

PRAYER

God the Creator of all, grow your church in faith;
God the Son who saves the world enrich us with your presence;
God the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, resource us for our mission and ministry;
that we may be a blessing throughout and beyond this Diocese, for we are called together to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

COMMUNICATION

It’s important to manage your own, as well as your congregation’s expectations, about what will be achieved, so keep your messages simple and accessible to the whole congregation. Be aware that your priorities may disappoint some people who contributed in Step 1. Here are some ideas you might like to try:

1. Communicate with your community, thanking them for their involvement.
2. Dedicate a Sunday service to “Called to Grow”, including suitable communication with the children and young people.
3. If you are ending an activity, communicate why and when, well.
4. Have a prayer station dedicated to each of the priorities.
5. Give a presentation about the priorities within a service, or after a service with food.
6. Hold a celebration service, lunch or party.
7. Have a parish retreat focussing on your priorities.
8. Hold a commissioning service for those who will be tasked with overseeing the implementation of the priorities.
9. Make a video demonstrating where the parish has been, where it is now, and where it may go in the future.
10. Utilise Social Media to communicate your priorities and get people involved.

STEP 4
Let’s do it!
With the church and its community
At this stage, it is important to focus on the church’s core priorities which were agreed in Step 3. Keep going with the momentum that has been built up so far, not being side-tracked from the priorities you have agreed. Just do it!

IN PRACTICE

1. Focus! Ensure that resources are allocated towards the priorities appropriately, and that each committee, and particularly the PCC, work to implement the priorities.

2. Remember, you are not on your own. The Growth Enablers, your Archdeaconry Steering Group, Diocesan Departments and Area Deans are all available for you.

3. There are funding opportunities available through the Diocese and external organisations. Useful Contacts are available towards the back of this workbook.

4. Have a simple plan which can be easily updated and added to. See pages 27-33 for some simple templates you can fill in and display.

SCRIPTURE

Luke 10: Calling of the 72

Acts 13.1-5, followed by Acts 14.21-28 (Paul and Barnabas are sent out and return to report back)

Luke 14.25-35 (the challenge to commitment)

PRAYER

God of Mission
Who alone brings growth to your Church,
Send your Holy Spirit to give Vision to our planning,
Wisdom to our actions, And power to our witness.
Help our church to grow in numbers,
In spiritual commitment to you,
And in service to our local community,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord
Amen

(The Diocese of West Yorkshire & the Dales)
COMMUNICATION

STEP 5

What has happened?
Within our church and its community?

1. Use every PCC/Deanery and Archdeaconry meeting to discuss progress, and any issues arising.

2. Ensure ongoing communication of priorities by church leadership.

3. Review church structures to support priority leaders, pastorally and practically.

4. Report progress to the congregation and give regular reminders, encouragement to support the priorities.

5. Have mini celebrations and opportunities to publicly say, ‘thank you’.

6. Share stories with the Diocese and local churches, not only of the big things, but the small, and of lessons learned.
This step is about acknowledging those things which have gone well and not so well - aiming for reconciliation and learning and celebrating those things which have been good.

IN PRACTICE

1. Carry out an annual review, collecting stories and data, looking for signs of growth and potential for growth. See our ‘How to’ section for an example review.
2. Invite stories, gather data, review stats for mission
3. Make no assumptions and proactively listen.
4. At the second annual review, consider whether any priorities need to be re-evaluated, or initiatives stopped. If an initiative is a weekly event, then at the first annual review it may be decided to stop.
   Be honest. There is no dishonour in ‘failing’. After a set period of time (we recommend no more than three years), return to Step 1.

SCRIPTURE

Nehemiah 6

Luke 12.54-56 (interpreting the signs of the times)

Luke 10.17-24 (the return of the seventy two)

PRAYER

O God our protector,
By whose mercy the world turns safely into darkness
And returns again to light:
We give into your hand our unfinished tasks,
Our unsolved problems,
And our unfulfilled hopes;
For you alone are our sure defence
And bring us lasting peace
In Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Collect for Evening Prayer, Saturdays in ordinary time:
COMMUNICATION

1. Feedback to your Archdeaconry Steering Group.
2. Share a more in-depth review with your PCC.
3. Hold a service of reflection and celebration.
4. Collect stories and statistics and find a way to anonymously display them.
5. Allow people to contribute their own reflections on the past (three) years.
6. Find a time to reflect as a parish.

How to Guide

STEP 1

Questions you should ask:
- Why does our church exist?
- What have been the highs and lows over time in the life of our parish?
- What events have shaped our local community, the whole parish?
- Are there any ‘hidden’ areas or issues which may need to be named?
- What does our church do?:
  - In service of the Church
  - In service of our community
  - In service of God?
- What are our parish resources (financial, buildings, people, goodwill...)?
- What networks does our parish have?
- What are other similar parishes doing which have been successful?
- What are neighbouring parishes doing which can be complemented or replicated?
- What are our (perceived) barriers to mission?

‘Toblerone’ matrix:
- Up (to worship God)
- In (to serve the Church)
- Out (to reach out to others)
- Together (with other churches)

A SWOT analysis grid
STEP 2

Top Tips for Meetings:
- Start and end on time
- Be clear about what is to be discussed and decided
- Ensure only those who are meant to be there attend
- Ensure everyone has an opportunity to speak and be listened to
- If possible, sit in a circle so no one hides in a corner, or takes over
- Eat together, even just cake and orange juice
- See the Resources section for other tips, many freely available online

Suggested Outline for Each Meeting

1. Open in prayer
2. Coordinator/chair explains the topics to be discussed and the expected outcomes.
3. Information presented to the group.
   - If only the raw data is available, the group should be split into smaller teams to each work on sifting through one aspect.
   - If someone has worked with the raw data to make charts, collate all the similar comments and is able to present them, the group can stay as one group to discuss the topics.
4. Summarise the discussions and note down any action points or outcomes.
5. Close in prayer
