The Bishop of Tonbridge seeks an

Archdeacon of Tonbridge

To serve an Archdeaconry comprising the towns and villages of south west Kent.

We are looking for a priest who:

- Is rooted in a life of prayer and study of the scriptures.
- Thinks inventively, having the gift of leading and enabling churches.
- in mission in a mixed ecology.
- Encourages and inspires the people of God to live out the Gospel in everyday life.
- Understands the nature and rhythm of rural ministry.
- Shows loving concern and pastoral sensitivity to those in their care.
- Has a mature and intuitive faith that understands challenges and is unafraid in the midst of them.
- Genuinely gets the meaning of collaborative ministry.

The Bishop of Tonbridge encourages applications from diverse backgrounds as a way of discerning God’s will and calling. This post is subject to an enhanced disclosure from the DBS.
