4 November 2022 | Special informal meeting of the House of Laity

Dear colleague

I'm looking forward to seeing you at our Synod meeting on Saturday 19 November. Following my discussions with a number of you, we have arranged to have a special informal meeting of members of the House of Laity at the end of the formal Synod. Although this Synod was scheduled to end at 3 pm, we have designed the agenda so that the formal meeting will actually finish at 2 pm allowing us to meet as a House for an hour and still enable you to leave on time.

The main purpose of this informal meeting is to get to know each other a little more and further develop our relationships. In order to make best use of our time together I would be grateful if you could give some advance thought, and be prepared to share your views on:

- Identifying your personal gifts, talents and areas of particular interest
- how we should work together going forward
- how we can help to disseminate, develop and deliver Transforming Church. Together.

I very much hope you will be able to stay for this session. As ever if there any points you would like to discuss before we meet please contact me by email at Bruce@thefinnamores.com or my mobile is 07831441415

I look forward to seeing you on 19 November.

Kind regards,

Bruce
