A Message from the Manse

Dear Friends

October traditionally marks the end of Harvest and the beginning of Winter. Long bright days fade to dark nights ... or perhaps just long darker days! This reality comes sharply when the clock changes. Yet long before daylight savings, people had ancient rituals to recognise this autumnal shift from light into the darkness.

Such traditions continue in Scotland, including bonfires and guising; Bonfires bring the community together, providing warmth and light on a cold dark night. Guising is an old colloquialism for disguising one's self—which people have done since the 1600s! Nowadays kids dress up for fun on Halloween to get sweets from neighbours. In old times, superstitious people believed they dressed up to chase away bad spirits.

Do you remember the old prayer? Dear Lord please protect me from ghosties and ghoulies and weirdies and beasties and things that go bump in the night. It is all good fun to think about silly, spooky fears . . .

but guising actually provided an opportunity for poor children to go to wealthy homes (lighting the dark with turnip lanterns!) in order to cheer folk up with a song or joke in reward for cake or money.

This October people on the news express fear for reasons beyond spooky phantoms. People seem uncertain about the planet in light of climate change. The holiday firm Thomas Cook ceased trading, leaving people uncertain about their holidays or jobs. And there is the October deadline with all the uncertainty of a future relationship with Europe.

As Christians we are people of hope and light. Whilst none of us can know the future with certainty, we remember that God's people have flourished in times of darkness and difficulty and still found light.

In the prologue to John's Gospel we hear:

"The light shines in the darkness and the darkness shall not overcome it."

All around us there are the signs of vitality, light and hope. Children are uniting to use their voices to demand carbon emission reductions. We saw an outpouring of solidarity, sympathy and support to the Thomas Cook staff. And somehow, we know that our political turmoil will resolve because we are blessed to Live in a peaceful nation with democratic freedom.

In Scotland we are free to live out our faith. When times seem dark, we come together to look out for one another, to care for each other and pray. Currie Kirk is an outward-looking community, generous in its care to the homeless, to the work of Christian Aid and Freshstart, to those who rely on the foodbank and we are a Kirk where friendships are strong and everyone is welcome.

In any times of darkness or uncertainty, we turn to the rituals we know—not guising and bonfires, but prayer, hospitality, and worship. In times of uncertainty or difficulty we respond to our call to be prayerful and faithful. God will most certainly provide his good gifts and his unexpected mercies. His light always prevails in the darkness.

The Guild

Congratulations to The Phrenologists who won the Big Guild Quiz with a score of 51 out of 60. A great night with ten teams taking part—MC<sup>2</sup> were 2nd with 47 and a close third Easter’s team with 46 points. The sum of £460 was raised and this will get our Crossreach project off to a good start. The Coffee Morning takes place on Saturday 19 October at 10 am—make a date in your diary, support Crossreach and get your tickets from Guild members or the Kirk Office. Items of books and any unwanted gifts or bottles will be very welcome for sale at the coffee morning.

To date Guilds in Scotland have raised a current total for the six projects: Crossreach £44,535.93; Sailors’ Society £29,160.49; The Boys’ Brigade £53,556.30; World Mission Council £27,795.14; Malawi Fruits £32,099.68; and Free to Live Trust (Seema’s project) £41,680.15. These six projects run for three years with individual Guilds choosing a different project to support each year.

In October we welcome Tom Gordon whose topic is “Did it Actually Happen like that”; and Mr Iain Macintyre who is speaking on the history of Dr Elsie Inglis—both very interesting subjects.

Please come along as a guest—the Guild is open to all and you do not have to join—a copy of the syllabus is available on the Kirk website.

The Disappearance of Eliza Grey
CRIME SCENE
DO NOT ENTER
By Su Parker Hallcroft

How would you react if you couldn't be seen or heard? Eliza is struggling; struggling to work out what is happening to her, and why no one in her community will listen. Finding herself the victim in a crime scene is the final straw. Eliza needs the local Detective to hear her before it's too late!

On Friday 13th, of all dates, the BB's boldly set off on a new camp adventure down near the English border in Newcastleton—a Christian activity centre run by Rock UK. Arriving after a 2 hour journey south, the boys did not take long to get settled into their own cabin before going for a swim in the centre's swimming pool, an activity which proved most popular!

Saturday involved some kayaking in the morning, before an off-site visit to Hawick where the boys took in a local rugby game and an opportunity to hit the shops and spend some tuck money on sweets, juice, crisps and even a kite!

Sunday was a busy day; morning was filled with sports before a 3 hour long session doing gorge walking right on the border. Evening time saw the boys take in a movie and play some games before a busy day ahead involving cleaning, packing and some high ropes activity before setting off homeward in the late afternoon on Monday.

The BB's would like to pass on sincere thanks to both Isobel Webber and Betty Clark for their contributions to the camp. The sticky toffee pudding and shortbread went down incredibly well and kept a wee part of Craggan present within our camp experience despite being in new surroundings!

FREE Brass Band Concert on 24 October 2019

By popular demand, the highly acclaimed and award winning Bathgate Brass Band, are returning to perform another concert for the local community in the Gibson Craig Halls, Lanark Road West at 7.30 pm on Thursday, 24 October. The Bathgate Band is a class act and it promises to be a really entertaining evening. Don't miss it! Free tickets are available from the Currie Kirk Office (451 5141), or from members of the Mission & Outreach Committee. Refreshments at the interval.

Even although the concert is Free, there will be an opportunity for you to make a financial donation on the evening, the proceeds of which will go to support the Band's funds. In this context, the Band are happy to make a substantial donation to Kirk funds. Please spread the good news and support this fantastic evening.

Mission & Outreach

The Trenches Unforgotten

Following on from last year's successful 'The Trenches Unforgotten' event performed at Balerno Parish Church, Currie Kirk has been invited to host the same event but this time in the Gibson Craig Hall. Essentially, it's an evening of Songs and Words from the First World War. The evening's material has been compiled by John Burnside of Balerno Parish Church and he makes use of the first person narratives of soldiers accounts which were not so readily accessible 50 years ago. There is no charge for this event, but donations welcome in aid of Poppy Scotland, Help for Heroes and associated charities.

The Poster outlines details and we hope to have tickets available from 9 October.

Session Clerk

Christmas Fayre

It may seem a little early to be talking about Christmas, but by now the Christmas Fayre is 'next month'! Why not lighten the load of Christmas shopping by doing a little bit of local retail therapy and supporting the church sale, which is being held in the Gibson Craig Hall on the afternoon of Saturday 30 November. You will be able to buy some rather nice Christmas gifts (which you won't find in the shops!), at very attractive prices. There will be anything from soft furnishings, to tasty morsels. Please put the date in your diary—next month we will whet your appetite further by giving you an idea of the different things on offer—watch this space!

Should anyone be in a position to help out with stalls, tea's etc, please contact Fiona Pigott of the M&O Committee.

Shona Moyes & Ishbel Massie

The Guild—Advent Calendar—Can you Help?

The Guild would like every child who attends the Food Bank at Wester Hailes to receive an advent calendar—preferably one with chocolate!! Donations can be handed into the Kirk Office or to any Guild member. Last date would be Sunday 17 November. Thank you in advance.

The Good Book Group

It was good to meet up again after the summer and talk about what we'd been reading. As usual, there was a wide range of books, some good and some not so good. As there were not many of us present, we only chose a book for the coming month and hopefully next time we can look further ahead. Our next meeting is on 7 October, 7 for 7.30 as usual, and the book is "Silent Child" by Sarah Denzil.

Do come and join us in the lounge at the Gibson Craig Halls and don't worry if you haven't read the book—just enjoy a cuppa and chat—everyone is welcome!

Look forward to seeing you!

Family and Elderly Shoebox Appeal – 2019

This year Currie Kirk, via the Mission & Outreach committee, is linking up with the charity “Blythswood Care”, who last year distributed 107,073 shoeboxes to Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Kosovo, Moldova, Romania, Serbia and Ukraine. This is a change from the “Link to Hope” charity which we have supported faithfully over many years.

The Family Shoeboxes of gifts are given to families who often have to make a choice between buying food or fuel at Christmas time – buying presents is just not a priority. Many of these families do not have running water, heating or electricity. Some live in appalling conditions, often living in just one or two rooms, and life for them is a real struggle to survive.

At Christmas time, these basic shoeboxes are filled with many goodies and necessities from sweets and small toys, to candles and shampoos, handkerchiefs and toothpaste, and covered with Christmas paper to transform them into a colourful gift that brings much needed help and joy to families and elderly people in great stress and trauma. Blythswood Care add in a Christian storybook for a child or a calendar with a religious message in each box.

One story: Elhame is five years old. Her mum and dad earn a little money by collecting drinks cans and plastic on the streets of Gjakovo, Kosovo, so that their six children do not go hungry. Imagine what it means for a family living in such poverty for each one of them to receive a box full of useful gifts! “Elhame’s favourite things were the hat and gloves,” says shoebox distributor Faton Berisha. “And she loved the coloured pens and notebook. Her parents were so pleased to see the children receive clothes that would help to keep them warm in winter. “They really appreciated the gifts of soap and toiletries as they have no money to buy these things. Stationery items are special for them too because they know their children will need them for school.”

During the month of September, Currie Kirk will be handing out leaflets which contain all the necessary information to fill a standard shoebox with some of the items mentioned above. The average cost of filling a box is £20, plus £3 towards transport costs, but please feel free to hand in items that will go a long way to filling up a shoebox. Items are outlined in the leaflet. Boxes can be handed in to the church office at the Gibson-Craig Halls, 156 Lanark Road West, during its working hours or contact Fiona Pigott for collection.

The closing date is Sunday 20th October for collection. Currie Kirk has always provided generously to this great cause. Please help to make this year one to remember for those children and families in need in Eastern Europe.

Further information and leaflets from Nina at the Church Office on 0131 451 5141 or any member of the Mission & Outreach committee.

Fiona Pigott,
M&O Committee

Dementia Friendly Pentlands are running monthly “Drop-in Sessions” in Currie Library on the last Saturday of every month when two of the DFP Team will provide an opportunity for anyone who would like to learn more about dementia, and support available locally, to come along and have a chat. For more information contact: dementiafriendlypentlands@gmail.com/

Magical Moments from the Musicals

What a fantastic concert performed by Debbie and Marcie. Many thanks to all who helped out with preparation, the setting up and the catering for the concert. Everyone seemed to have enjoyed the experience and what a talented Mother and Daughter act.

The amount donated was £586 and this will be split between Currie Kirk funds and the Breast Cancer Charity, Make 2NDS Count. Each will receive £293.

freshstart

On Sunday 15th September, Jean Smith and Elizabeth Wood took part in the Fresh Start Sponsored Walk.

They enjoyed the Wee Wander and with the help of all their friends contributed to Fresh Start's total which they hope will reach £10,000 which will be used to establish people in their first home after experiencing homelessness.

The walk was fun, good weather, good company, and good food and entertainment at the end of the walk at Murrayfield.

They would like to thank all their sponsors.
