

Our church may be closed, but we're all still here and we're stronger together. The Readers and Wardens are putting together a 3-month reading plan that will take us through the New Testament in the order that events actually happened. We aim to start this immediately after Easter, on Easter Monday 13th April. During the 3 months there will be 92 daily readings, so we will have read through the entire New Testament by the middle of July.

We won't actually meet of course; it's all done online. There are 2 weeks before we begin, so meanwhile here are the Church of England daily Psalm readings for the coming week:

LET US PRAY Come, O Spirit of God, and make within us your dwelling place and home. May our darkness be dispelled by your light, and our troubles calmed by your peace; may all evil be redeemed by your love, all pain transformed through the suffering of Christ, and all dying glorified in his risen life. Amen.
Monday 30 th March	Psalm 23
Tuesday 31 st March	Psalm 102
Wednesday 1 st April	Psalm 145
Thursday 2 nd April	Psalm 105
Friday 3 rd April	Psalm 18
Saturday 4 th April	Psalm 121
Palm Sunday 5th April, today's reading: Luke chapter 19, verses 28-44 Collect for the day: Almighty and everlasting God, Who in your tender love towards the human race sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ To take upon him our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross: Grant that we follow the example of his patience and humility, And also be made partakers of his resurrection; Through Jesus Christ your son our Lord, Who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever Amen With shouts of joy and jubilation you entered your city, Lord Christ. With shouts of anger and hatred you carried your cross to your death, With a cry you breathed your last and bought for us salvation and peace. May our reflections and prayers on this, Palm Sunday, remind us that while our love may be like the morning mist that vanishes so early, your remains constant and true. In this is our hope and confidence to stand before you. Keep us faithful through these difficult times and may we know the joy of knowing you as Lord and Saviour Amen
