

The readers and wardens are putting together a 3-month reading plan that will take us through the New Testament in the order that events actually happened. We aim to start this immediately after Easter, on Easter Monday 13th April. During the 3 months there will be 92 daily readings, so we will have read through the entire New Testament by the middle of July.

We won't actually meet of course; it's all done online. There is just 1 week before we begin, so meanwhile here are the Church of England daily lectionary readings for the coming week:

LET US PRAY
God of compassion, be close to those who are ill, afraid or in isolation. In their loneliness, be their consolation; in their anxiety, be their hope; in their darkness, be their light; through him who suffered alone on the cross, but reigns with you in glory, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Maundy Thursday 9th April

Today's reading: Matthew chapter 27, verses 11 - 31

Collect for the day:

Almighty and everlasting God,
Who in your tender love towards the human race sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ
To take upon him our flesh
And to suffer death upon the cross:
Grant that we follow the example of his patience and humility,
And also be made partakers of his resurrection;
Through Jesus Christ your son our Lord,
Who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever
Amen

Prayer:

You had nothing left but your own cloak;
You were fond of it, your mother had woven it for you.
But this too had to go.
One thing only is necessary, Lord, your cross.

Nothing comes now between you and the cross,
You are going to be united forever with your Father,
And together you will save the world.

And so Lord, I must give up all these trappings which hinder me and hide me from your sight.
This 'possessing' which stifles the 'being' in me and separates me from others.
Thus, Lord, little by little everything in my life which is not an expression of your will must die.

Help me Lord, to give up everything which keeps from sharing in your love,
Everything which prevents me from witnessing to the truth of your Gospel,
Everything which prevents me from loving as you loved me.

Help me to remember Lord you gave everything so that I can have the free gift of eternal life.

Amen

Good Friday 10th April

Today's reading: Matthew chapter 27, verses 32-61

Collect for the day:

Almighty Father,
Look with mercy on this your family for which our Lord Jesus Christ was content to be betrayed and given up into the hands of sinners
and to suffer death upon the cross;
who is alive and glorified
with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God now and forever
Amen

Prayer:

Lord Jesus Christ,
We give you thanks and praise; you endured the horror of the nails,
Piercing your hands and feet,
The crown of thorns adorning your head,
And you bore the beating and mocking to our shame.
May your wounds bring true healing.
Forgive us when we do not know what we do,
When we betray you,
When we fail you.
We ask you Lord to restore us in your saving glory.

Amen

Easter Day 12th April – He is Risen ALLELUIA

Today's reading: Matthew chapter 28, verses 1-10

Collect for the day:

Lord of all life and power,
Who through the mighty resurrection of your Son overcame the old order of sin and death
To make all things new in Him:
Grant that we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ,
May reign with him in glory.
To whom with you and the Holy Spirit
Be praise and honour, glory and might,
Now and in all eternity
Amen

Prayer: "I know that my redeemer lives – alleluia "

I worship you Lord Jesus Christ, for this amazing fact: that you came back to life and are alive right now.

Amidst all the questions I still have about life and about what is happening in the world, one certainty rings out: CHRIST IS RISEN.

The immortal One has died for all sin and for all sinners in every time and place.
Christ has been brought back to life: the most thrilling victory of all time!

Lord Jesus Christ you really are the Son of God.

I worship you in praise and adoration.

I give myself to you right now on this day of all days.

Equip me with the power that raised Christ from the dead to serve you today and all the days ahead.

In Christ's name I pray.

Amen
