

Prayer for week commencing Monday 06 July

Lord, we thank you for your church – the people with whom we share our faith. Help us to live together in the unity of faith, showing your love to each other, caring for each other, and praying for each other. We pray especially for those in our community who are ill, lonely or bereaved..... (please include here the names of those known personally to you). Give us such loving hearts that our whole lives will be a living example of your love.

Help us, Lord, in our own sin and weakness to hold fast to the faith you have given us, resisting the pressures and sometimes ridicule of the world around us. Let us, Lord, recognize the immense privilege of being your children, giving you praise and glory for all that you have done for us and given us, remembering the many blessings along our life’s way.

Lord, help us and support us as we try to heed the warnings in Revelations, but help us also to rejoice in the glorious promise of the second coming, the joy of seeing the church as your bride, beautifully dressed in splendor and majesty, Eden restored, sin vanquished forever.

We rejoice, Lord, and give thanks that through your death and resurrection you gave us the free gift of eternal life in order that we can look forward to the second coming with confidence and joy.

We pray in Jesus’ name,
Amen

Collect for Sunday 12 July – Trinity 5

Almighty and everlasting God,
by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church
is governed and sanctified:
hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people,
that in their vocation and ministry
they may serve you in holiness and truth
to the glory of your name;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever.
Amen
