MAGAZINE CONTACTS

Millions of people in touch with church community action amid cost-of-living crisis.

Polling by Savanta ComRes for the Church of England shows that nearly half the population reports having been in contact with their local church – at 46% - with the most popular reasons for doing so being attending weddings, baptisms, and funerals (50%) worship and services (42%) and carol services (39%).

The figures also show that 13.7% of all UK adults (over 7 million) have been in touch with their local church through services such as parent and toddler groups, lunch clubs and food banks.

The findings come after C of E statistics from 2019 show its churches running or supporting 35,000 social action projects.

This includes 8,000 food banks and more than 4,000 parent/carers toddler groups. More than 5,000 churches run or support lunch clubs, coffee mornings or similar hospitality for older people.

The Bishop of Durham, Paul Butler, who speaks for the bishops in the House of Lords on welfare issues, said: "These figures show the extent to which the Church of England is providing not just spiritual and pastoral support, but practical help to communities throughout the country.

"Jesus' commandment to love your neighbour as yourself is evident in the care and service provided by churches in so many ways.

"The biggest source of practical support provided by the Church of England currently is through running or supporting around 8,000 food banks and many of our churches are now opening up as 'warm spaces' through the 'Warm Welcome' campaign, as people struggle to pay their energy bills.

"Sadly, we anticipate that these services will come under increasing pressure this winter."

Church News (1)

Work started Wed. 4th January, and great progress was made, lifting all the stones of the old path. The groundwork is being carried out by Peak Paving and the new lighting by Foxx Electrical, under the supervision of Charles Bryant (who designed the path) and Tony Kershaw.

On the 8th and 15th, the churchyard crossing may be a little difficult for people with disabilities or baby buggies. Our sidespeople will be there to give a helping hand.

People have asked about the old stones....

Actually, only about half of the stones being removed are actual inscribed gravestones. The best of these will be stored, with a view to using them inside the church, in future plans - for instance, improving the cramped area around the font and war memorial. Some of the gravestones may be too damaged - cracked and flaking - to use in this way, and these will be found a permanent place elsewhere in the churchyard.

None of the gravestones are necessarily above the graves they commemorate - they were moved around and relaid in 1861 when the path was laid. Alongside the path are our two oldest gravestones, dating from the 1600s. These are, we believe, over the actual graves, and they will be kept in place.

The work is being fully funded by the Friends of Mottram Parish Church, and will incorporate a memorial to our dear friend Rev Dr Richard Hills MBE. The Friends are also paying to have the notice board completely renovated - we hope this work will also take place in January.

Church News - (2)

Many hands made light work

Well done to Cap'n Bob and Team Chandelier! And it looked even more spectacular with all those candles alight for the Nine Lessons and Carols on the 11th of December.

The carols began in traditional style with 'Once in Royal David's City' - the first verse sung unaccompanied by three enchanting little choristers from Mottram C of E primary school.

The robed choir was ably supported by a 'pop-up choir' in civvies who had rehearsed for several hours that afternoon. This was such a success that there is to be another fabulous sing-a-long at our 'Pop Up Choir' on 5th February for our 'Music Sunday'

Please join us. Come and tell us your favourite hymn and what it means to you. ALL ages welcome!

The time is yet to be confirmed.

For more info visit our Facebook 'Mottram Parish' page, check the announcements in church, sign up for E-news or speak to Rev Cait or Louise Britton.

On the 11th of December the younger members of the church took over for a lively nativity, complete with a very well-behaved donkey. Sound effects were amplified by the congregation. It has to be admitted that the grown-ups were a bit shy at first, but once we got the hang of it we joined in with gusto as shepherds jostled kings, kings trod on shepherd's feet and 'baaas' and 'eyeores' added to the atmosphere. Mary ended up with a remarkable collection of gifts, some of them (tinsel and what looked suspiciously like a small plastic turkey) slightly unbiblical. A lovely, funny, engaging service, beautifully done.

The Christmas Fair at Mottram Community Centre raised over £1,100. Well done everyone, and thanks for all your hard work.

WALKING WITH THE WALKERS

A new walking year started with a walk around Crowden on New Year's Day. Eleven of us walked and had a lovely couple of hours together.

A new walking year and a new charity to support. This year 2023 we will collect our £1 per walker for WILLOW WOOD HOSPICE. So please do join us for a companionable walk together whilst supporting a well worth charity.

Our next walk is scheduled for 28/1/23 - a moderate 4 mile walk around Hobson Moor. Meet at the church gates at 10.30 am. See Notices Page 4.

Our charity for 2022 was GLOSSOP MOUNTAIN RESCUE TEAM. I'm pleased to report that I delivered a cheque to the charity on 4 January 2023 amounting to £100.

Thank you so much for your company and generosity.

In February we are planning a moderate 5 mile walk from Woolley to Reddish.

The Journey of the Magi

By James Tissot 19th century

(Credit - Wikimedia - The William Hood Dunwoody Fund)

Tissot's reputation has so firmly come to rest on the artist's depictions of the stylish leisured class of the late-nineteenth century that the religious works of his late career - illustrations of the life of Christ - are little known. However, at the turn of the century, these biblical images were considered his greatest achievement due, on one hand, to the popularity of images from the Near East and, on the other hand, to the sense of immediacy Tissot gave to an age-old tale through uncompromising attention to detail.

The Journey of the Magi was created after the second of three trips that the artist made to Palestine between 1886 and 1896 to gather sketches and photographs of the people, costumes, topography, and light of the region.

We don't always get the answer we expect or want, but it's always good to share with God. He shared with us on the cross.

Seeking God

I said "I will find God," and forth I went
To seek Him in the clearness of the sky,
But over me stood unendurably
Only a pitiless, sapphire firmament
Ringing the world, - blank splendour;
Yet intent
Still to find God, "I will go and seek,"
said I,
"His way upon the waters," and drew nigh
An ocean marge weed-strewn and foam-besprent;
And the waves dashed on idle sand and stone,
And very vacant was the long, blue sea;
But in the evening as I sat alone,
My window open to the vanishing day,
Dear God! I could not choose but kneel and pray
And it sufficed that I was found of Thee.
