

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

THE DIOCESE OF LEICESTER

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The Diocese of Leicester is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Diocese of Leicester complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by: -

- keeping personal data up to date;
- by storing and destroying it securely;
- by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data;
- by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure; and
- by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes to: -

- Enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public within the Diocese of Leicester;
- Administer records of: -
  - Clergy;

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of you (the data subject) so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about diocesan events;
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement (e.g. 'where we pass on information to a local authority or the police for safeguarding or other reasons')
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
  - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
  - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent except as in 5 below and Annex 1
- Generally, we will only hold information relating to criminal proceedings or offences or allegations of offences where there is an overarching safeguarding requirement to process this data for the protection of children and adults who may be put at risk in the Diocese. If we Process any Personal Data comprising criminal convictions, offences or related security measures, we will always have a further lawful basis for such processing. Such lawful basies may include: -
  - where the Diocese is exercising obligations or rights which are imposed or conferred by law on us or you in connection with employment, social security and social protection, and the Diocese has an appropriate policy document in place (e.g. to undertake appropriate checks on individuals prior to taking up a role);
  - where it is necessary for the prevention or detection of an unlawful act (e.g. passing on information to the Police or other investigatory body regarding safeguarding concerns);
  - where the Diocese is complying with or assisting others to comply with regulatory requirements relating to unlawful acts or dishonesty (e.g. passing on information to the Police or other investigatory body concerning a case of suspected fraud),
  - where it is carried out in the course of safeguarding children or other individuals at risk e.g. making a safeguarding disclosure to a family member or a dependent as appropriate;
  - where an individual has given their consent to the processing e.g. for a DBS check in the course of recruitment;
  - where the Diocese is establishing, exercising or defending legal claims (e.g. providing information to our insurers or lawyers in connection with legal proceedings);
  - where it is necessary to protect the vital interests of an individual; or
  - where it is carried out in the course of the Diocese's legitimate activities as a not-for-profit body with religious aims (e.g. carrying out pastoral activities)'.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared within the Diocese of Leicester, in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the Diocese, and certain third parties outside of the Diocese as set out in Annex 1 (e.g. with law enforcement agencies for the prevention and detection of crime.'

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide "Save or Delete: the Care of Diocesan Records" which is available from the Church of England website at <https://www.churchofengland.org/more/libraries-and-archives/records-management-guides>.

7. What information do we hold

We hold information about your: -

- Education/work history and professional qualifications
- Information obtained as a result of any background checks carried out in respect of your role with the Diocese

- Any other information which you choose to provide to us or that we are provided by others
- We may also receive Personal Data about you from third parties, for example, your family members, other parishioners, other Dioceses, medical professionals, the Police and other law enforcement bodies

8. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the Diocese of Leicester holds about you;
- The right to request that the Diocese of Leicester corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Diocese of Leicester to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability).
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable);
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

9. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
