

Priest-in-Charge Long Itchington & Marton (0.5FTE)

Please note this is also an exciting opportunity for a full-time role - candidates may be interested in combining this post with the New Ministries Lead role (0.5 FTE) at the Diocese of Coventry.

Long Itchington and Marton, a beautiful Benefice in a lovely part of Warwickshire - which is now expanding due to new housing - seek a new Priest-in-Charge to lead us in growing our mission, and who:

- Is able to share their faith with people of all ages – is passionate to the point of being infectious.
- Will further strengthen and broaden the culture of our churches.
- Is a leader with a vision to grow the Kingdom, and an excellent communicator.
- Wishes to be fully involved in our communities.
- Is committed to our CofE Academy, developing its vision and its relationships with our churches and villages.
- Will develop outreach and new ways of communicating the Christian word.
- Has good organisational and IT skills, and is a team worker.
- Has a great sense of humour and embraces difference.

Informal conversations welcome:
Archdeacon Missioner Barry Dugmore,
07487 578311
Barry.Dugmore@Coventry.Anglican.org

Closing Date: Noon, Fri 22nd October
Interviews: Tue 16 & Wed 17 Nov
Further details:
coventry.anglican.org/vacancies