

The Diocese of Coventry and
The University of Warwick

ANGLICAN CHAPLAIN
THE UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

We welcome applications from priests who will:

- Work collaboratively and constructively with the other members of the Multi-Faith Chaplaincy team to minister to the human needs of the University Community, both students and staff.
- Provide support and care, in situations of crisis and distress.
- Provide opportunity for quietness, reflection and, as appropriate, for worship, within the University Community and in neighbouring places of worship.
- Provide active liaison and links with the various denominational worshipping and serving Communities within the City and the County, into which students might be drawn (to mutual benefit of 'town and gown'), and including the Cathedral and the Community of the Cross of Nails.
- Promote peace through understanding within the institutional life of the University and support good communications within it, supporting the development the University and to aid reconciliation when institutional conflicts arise.
