

Eternal Wall of Answered Prayer

A new Christian landmark is to be built in the Midlands. Eternal Wall of Answered Prayer will be a huge, thought-provoking piece of public art, aiming to kindle conversations about prayer.

The iconic structure will be constructed using one million bricks, each brick featuring an answered prayer. This Christian landmark will make hope visible by digitally linking visitors with a database of one million answered prayers, using interactive technology and a bespoke app. Visitors will be able to use their smart device, holding it against any brick to read the individual answered prayers.

Built near Coleshill on the outskirts of Birmingham, Eternal Wall will stand at 169 feet, eclipsing the size of the Angel of the North, and is expected to attract 300,000 visitors each year. 500,000 journeys will see Eternal Wall every week from the M6, M42, HS2, and flight paths from Birmingham Airport.

The team at Eternal Wall believe it will give people and communities hope that God hears them, answers prayer and can change circumstances. They would love visitors to be able to access answered prayers that demonstrate the full breadth of Christian experience; from different denominations, countries and points in history; workplaces and family situations. If you are part of a Christian network, whether workplace/leisure based, intercessory, educational or evangelistic, they would love to connect with you.

Find out more about the project and how you can get involved on the Eternal Wall of Answered Prayer website - www.eternalwall.org.uk.

Prayer Diary

June 2021

"Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit says the Lord."

Zechariah 4:6

When the pandemic started and churches went into lockdown, some people drew comparisons with the experience of exile. We were exiled not just from our church buildings, but from one another. Our experience was in some ways entirely unlike the Israelites' experience of exile – they were beaten by an invading enemy and many of their population carried off to live in a foreign land – but their experience of sudden overwhelming crisis with the loss of all that was familiar to them has some echoes for us today. The people of Israel found that despite being taken into exile, away from the places God had chosen for them, God was still with them. In spite of the trauma, it became a time of spiritual growth. And perhaps that has been your experience of this past year – that in spite of all the losses and difficulties, God has been with us and drawn close to us.

But now, we hope and pray our time of exile is coming to an end - perhaps, we can continue to learn from the experience of the biblical exile? Like the Israelites, we are returning to the places and spaces so long forbidden to us. The Israelites had to rebuild their Temple, whereas we have to rebuild the church in different ways. Zerubbabel was the governor of Jerusalem who began the rebuilding of the Temple, and the prophet Zechariah speaks God's prophecy to him: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit! Maybe that is a word to hold on to in all the opportunities and challenges of a post-pandemic church. In these weeks that follow Pentecost, may we rely on the Spirit of God to guide us, sustain us, inspire us and equip us in all God calls us to be and to do. Amen.

Called Vocations Course

Are you or someone you know interested in exploring God's calling?

Called: Mission, Ministry & Me - Vocations Course

This course is open to all. It provides a space to think together about what it means to be called by God, to take our place in the mission of God, and to give opportunity to explore both lay and ordained Christian vocation. It will include teaching, discussion, guest speakers and some time for reflection and prayer. We hope it will be enjoyable, encouraging and helpful to you in identifying your next step, whatever that may be.

Previous attendees have said:

- "Extremely helpful to explore vocation options"
- "You offered people the opportunity to hear from and talk to people who have been through this stuff and are actively following their individual vocations."
