

We are still open

Even though our public worship services are all cancelled, our church is still open as a place of prayer and reflection.

Please do come in, take solace in the quiet or tell God how you feel.

Greet those around - but please keep your distance!