Not sure I looked very awake for the 7am beginning of the Day of Prayer!

Later we enjoyed a peaceful hour of prayer live-streamed via The Church At Perton's facebook (still available!) page for Trysull Deanery.

It was also really lovely to receive an email from Canon Elaine Murray, Rector of the Carrigaline Union of Parishes in the Diocese of Cork, Cloyne and Ross in the Republic of Ireland - our twinned parish. Elaine sent a photo of our Shaping for Mission prayer and a candle from her Rectory, adding how much she loves the prayer and will continue to use it for us. She also sent a photo from the the Diocese's Zoom Morning Prayer when they prayed for us. Isn't it great being part of the Body of Christ!

Prayer for Lichfield 2

Sovereign Lord, we seek your unction and mercy upon the communities of Lichfield Diocese in this time of new normal; fill the clergy with your love and vision to lead the churches to worship you both virtually and physically; rekindle hope and passion upon the teachers of the schools to seriously educate the students with ingenuity; protect the frontliners - doctors and medical staff to care and treat the patients with patience and urgency; remove the pho... Prayer for Lichfield

Almighty God, the creator of the universe, we commit the Diocese of Lichfield to you: grant the Bishops, Archdeacons, clergy and all lay members grace to serve, heart to love, strength to do good, patience to persevere, and faith to share. Listen to the cries of your children; console those who are vulnerable and in distress, affirm those who are confused and worried, lift up those who are down-hearted and depressed. Restore your church to continue servin... See more

Just received from Bishop Steve, in Matlosane, South Africa: 'Hi Rev Philip. Thanks very much, request to join in prayer has been well received, distributed throughout the Diocese and people have joined Lichfield in prayer. We continue to hope and count on God'. Encouraged too by prayers from Nordkirche and Cork so far.....

I was delighted to be joined by 6 chaplains for our hour of prayer for the Community of Chaplains this evening. We prayed for every chaplain and chaplaincy by name and I'm grateful to have had the chance to hold each one of them in love and to commend their vocations to God. It's easy to get diverted praying for those you know and care about but I also realised how many chaplains I don't really know yet.

Praying through such a long list takes a bit of time but managed to ... See more

Diocesan Day of Prayer. We prayed as a group representing the three churches of our Benefice. Candles were lit during prayers. The Paschal Candle to welcome Our Lord - Candle 1 prayers for the Diocese - Candles 2,3 and 4 for Discipleship, Vocation and Evangelism - Candles 5,6 and 7 for the three churches in our Benefice and the tealights were lit for ministries and good works in our Benefice and community.

Praise God for the gifts He has blessed us all with and may the Holy Spirit be strong in all of us as we go out and serve. Amen.
