

SOME GRANT MAKING BODIES AND SOURCES OF FUNDING

It is sometimes helpful to tailor your application to target the specific terms of the trust, and the criteria set by the trustees. The CME Adviser can offer advice about some of these. A number, like EIG or St Boniface, ask for a letter from an Archdeacon or Bishop in support.

Trusts and grant-making bodies are experiencing increasing demands on their resources, so early application is likely to be helpful to you.

Bridgebuilders Trust

One of the trusts under the general portfolio of the Growth Funds is the Bridgebuilders Trust. Applications to this trust are handled independently and are determined by the following criteria:

1. To advance the Christian faith in ministry by furthering the development and growth of the mission and of the Anglican Church, thereby making funds available in:-
 - i. Assisting the church in its involvement in all aspects of the community.
 - ii. Supporting the clergy and laity in recognising the opportunities and problems existing in society and assisting them in understanding and making appropriate responses.
 - iii. Providing funds for church planting to advance the Christian religion in communities with spiritual need
 - iv. Encouraging Christian congregations and other Christian bodies to work together for mission and ministry.
 - v. Co-operating with other religious and secular bodies in furthering the above objects.
2. To sustain such growth and development by funding diocesan, parochial and church projects designed to develop the outreach of the church.
3. To further education which has as its purpose the fostering of the Christian mission by the provision of support, advice and training.

Completed applications will be considered at the next Bridgebuilders Trustees Meeting in October. The trust uses the Growth Fund application form to ensure parity of information. These are available from the Archdeacon of Lichfield's office: phone 01543 306145 or e-mail: archdeacon.lichfield@lichfield.anglican.org.
