

David Nixon
St James Church, Audley, Staffordshire.

I am standing because I feel the C.of E. has lost its way and its leaders need to get back to Biblical Truth and away from the bureaucratic expansion at the top, leaving more money with each parish.

I am a former teacher, a small businessman and now a taxi driver.

I have been elected three times to Newcastle Borough Council and twice to Staffordshire County Council.

I go to the 9 o'clock service where we use the 1662 Book of Common Prayer.
