

Vicar (House for Duty)

Burton upon Trent St Modwen

The historic Parish Church of St Modwen, Burton upon Trent is seeking a House for Duty priest to lead them at this exciting time in their history.

Could God be calling you to this beautiful part of Staffordshire to help us to missionally:

- develop our traditional style of worship whilst exploring new ways of delivering the gospel.
- bring to fruition the PCC's vision for the internal re-ordering and use of the church building as a town centre hub for the wider community.
- build on existing links with local centres of education, including a Further Education college and a church primary school.
- Work with our existing team of active and energetic SSM and retired Clergy.
- continue our civic role and partner with the Borough Council in their vision for the town centre regeneration.
- Encourage local businesses to develop a Christian presence within the town centre community.
- Develop missional partnership with Youth for Christ and other groups?

We are a committed, warm and welcoming Christian community. Please read our profile to find out more.
