About our Churchyards

Many of the Churchyards in our diocese have been here for hundreds and hundreds of years and they are used for lots of different things.

Sometimes, when someone we love has died, they are buried here and we can come to the churchyard to think about them and remember the things we used to do together.

Sometimes, when things get a bit busy in our lives or in our heads, we can come to the churchyard for some peace and quiet.

Sometimes, when we want to feel close to God, we can come to the churchyard to pray and to enjoy the beautiful world that God has made.

- What do you like about this churchyard?
- What's your favourite thing that you've seen or done here today?
- What are you going to look for next time you visit?
