

True or False?

Internet Safety

Pupil and Parent Activity

Answer the true or false questions below, then get your parents and family members involved by answering the questions too....

1. Having a strong password is really important.
2. If you meet someone online it is OK to give them your address and phone number.
3. Someone you meet online has asked you to send your picture. You should say 'no'.
4. If you receive an e-mail asking for your password you should not reply.
5. Passwords with a mix of letters and numbers are more secure.
6. There is no need to have up to date anti-virus software on my computer.
7. It is up to the internet provider to make sure I am safe online.
8. Some people who you meet online may not be who they say they are.
9. Setting parental controls helps keep children safer online.