Saturday, 1st October, 11am – Diocesan Black History Month Thanksgiving Day at Southwark Cathedral on the theme of Welcome.

You're invited to participate in uplifting worship and workshops exploring this year's theme of Welcome. We have partnered with the Southwark Diocesan Board of Education (SDBE) to organise this exciting celebration and look forward to hearing contributions from students at St Mark's Academy, Mitcham and others. More details to follow.

St Mark, South Norwood Celebrates 170 Years Of Dedication On 13th October.

We will be celebrating throughout the month of October. In order to promote the Parish Church of St Mark, there will be items on sale, including, mugs, key rings, tote bags and items for those at school, pens, pencils, notebooks, etc. A Souvenir edition of the Parish magazine will also be available; and there will be a display of historical documents relating to the Church.

We also aim to record some intergenerational stories capturing the experiences of parishioners in this parish church over the years. Watch this space!
