On Wednesday, 8th September, the Church celebrates The Birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This festival in honour of the birth of the mother of our Lord is celebrated on this day in both the eastern and the western Churches. Falling just nine months after the feast of the Conception of Mary, this feast acknowledges the preparation by God of his people to receive their Saviour and Lord, putting 'heaven in ordinary' and showing that mortal flesh can be the bearer of Christ to the world.

Today, we recognise that the return to school or starting a new school with new teachers and children, is HUGE for children and their families. So, here at church, we are celebrating the end of the school vacation and look forward to the vocation of our children going to school.

A 'Back to School' Litany:

God will be with you every day at school.

Intercessor: No matter how good or bad things are going, God will be there. You can count on God's presence.

Young Leader: When it's the night before going to school and, I'm getting my uniform together and, making sure I have all my stuff for school.

Children: Jesus is with me.

Young Leader: When I'm waking up and eating a healthy breakfast to start the day.

Children: Jesus is with me.

Young Leader: When I'm on my way to school.

Children: Jesus is with me.

Young Leader: When I meet my teachers and my new (or old) friends.

Children: Jesus is with me.

Young Leader: When I'm playing with my friends during break time.

Children: Jesus is with me.

Young Leader: When I'm leaving school for home.

Children: Jesus is with me.

Young Leader: When I'm telling my family about my day at school.

Children: Jesus is with me.

Young Leader: When I'm praying at night and thanking God for my family, my friends and my school.

Children: Jesus is with me.

Intercessor: Let's pray together:

Thank you, Jesus, for always being by my side. I know that if I get nervous or afraid, you will be there with me.

Whenever I see a cross anywhere, or make the sign of the cross, I will remember that you are always with me. I know that I can talk with you any time – day or night – and for that I am so thankful. I pray this all in your name. Amen.

COLLECT

Almighty God,
whose only Son has opened for us
a new and living way into your presence:
give us pure hearts and steadfast wills
to worship you in spirit and in truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING Isaiah 35:4-7a

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

Say to those who are of a fearful heart, "Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you." Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water.

PSALM Psalm 146

R You open wide your hand, O Lord, and satisfy our needs.

Alleluia!
Praise the Lord, O my soul!
I will praise the Lord as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God while
I have my being. R

Put not your trust in rulers,
nor in any child of earth,
for there is no help in them.
When they breathe their last, they
return to earth,
and in that day their thoughts
perish. R

Happy are they who have the God of Jacob
for their help!
whose hope is in the Lord their God;
Who made heaven and earth, the
seas,
and all that is in them;
who keeps his promise for ever;
Who gives justice to those who are
oppressed,
and food to those who hunger. R

The Lord sets the prisoners free;
the Lord opens the eyes of the blind;
the Lord lifts up those who are bowed down;

The Lord loves the righteous;
the Lord cares for the stranger;
he sustains the orphan and widow,
but frustrates the way of the wicked. R

The Lord shall reign for ever, your God, O Zion, throughout all generations.
Alleluia! R

SECOND READING

James 2:1-10 [11-13] 14-17

A reading from the letter of James.

My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favouritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here, please," while to the one who is poor you say, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet," have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonoured the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you? You do well if you really fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. [For the one who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty. For judgement will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgement.] What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill," and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

GOSPEL Mark 7:24-37

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Jesus set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go – the demon has left your daughter." So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone. Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

POST COMMUNION

Lord God, the source of truth and love, keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, united in prayer and the breaking of bread, and one in joy and simplicity of heart, in Jesus Christ our Lord.
