Government guidance includes a request for names of attendees to be recorded and kept for 21 days to assist 'track and trace' if required.

Singing, chanting are not permitted.

There will be no sharing of the Peace and distribution of Holy Communion will be in one kind only.

There will be no Refreshments after the Service.

Thank you very much, Mother Roxanne

Update: the Diocesan Coronavirus Task Group

Church halls and exercise

Now that gyms are open and other forms of exercise are permitted indoors we have had a number of enquiries about the use of church halls for this.

The Archdeacons are doing some further research on this and will send out a communication later on this matter. It is hoped that there will also be an update in this as to whether church groups can meet in church halls.

Working with children and young people

The CTG is very grateful to the members of the Mission Team who work with Children and Young People who have collaborated with colleagues in Rochester Diocese on producing material to help parishes to work with their children and young people following the pandemic.

Singing

The current guidance remains that in the church it is possible to have only one singer and one instrumentalist. The singer must be distanced from others or behind a screen. Please do remember, though, that congregational singing is still not permitted.

For the time being, we will continue the 'mixed mode' worship for the Benefice – recorded 8am and 10am Eucharistic Services plus physical 10am at Church. Our aim is to reduce this workload (of recording Sunday Services as well as meeting physically in the Church building) by livestreaming the 10am Eucharist according to Common Worship each week from St. Mark. We plan to livestream the 8am BCP Mass as well, though perhaps not initially. As a result, at St Mark, we are investing in the necessary WiFi, camera kit plus add-ons. This way we will continue our mission to provide to all of you, access to our Sunday worship. Also, from this week, we will be broadcasting Compline only, from Monday to Friday and taking a break from recording Morning Prayer – Watch This Space!

WE WELCOME YOUR FINANCIAL DONATIONS TO THIS VENTURE – Thank you, Mother Rx

SUNDAY 19TH JULY 2020 SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

COLLECT

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love such good things as pass our understanding:

pour into our hearts such love that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

FIRST READING Isaiah 44.6-8

A reading from the prophecy of Isaiah Thus says the Lord, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the Lord of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god.

Who is like me? Let them proclaim it, let them declare and set it forth before me.

Who has announced from of old the things to come?

Let them tell us what is yet to be.

Do not fear, or be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? You are my witnesses!

Is there any god besides me? There is no other rock; I know not one.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

86.11-17

Refrain:

All nations you have made shall come and worship you, O Lord.

Teach me your way, O Lord, and I will walk in your truth; knit my heart to you, that I may fear your name.

I will thank you, O Lord my God, with all my heart, and glorify your name for evermore;

For great is your steadfast love towards me, for you have delivered my soul from the depths of the grave. Refrain

O God, the proud rise up against me and a ruthless horde seek after my life; they have not set you before their eyes.
But you, Lord, are gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and full of kindness and truth.

Turn to me and have mercy upon me; give your strength to your servant and save the child of your handmaid.

Show me a token of your favour, that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed; because you, O Lord, have helped and comforted me. Refrain

SECOND READING

Romans 8.12-25

A reading from the letter to the Romans

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, 'Abba! Father!' it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL Matthew 13.24-30, 36-43

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

He put before them another parable:
'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, "Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?" He answered, "An enemy has done this." The slaves said to him, "Then do you want us to go and gather them?" But he replied, "No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn." '

Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, 'Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.' He answered, 'The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ
