

THE BAPTISM OF CHRIST

Last week, here in the Western Church, we celebrated The Epiphany, the occasion to celebrate another element in the story of Christ's birth, the visit of the far-travelled magi, understood as the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles. Matthew's account speaks simply of 'wise men from the east'; later tradition fixed their number at three, made them kings and recalled their resonant names – Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar. In this perspective, Epiphanytide is an apt season to pray for the worldwide mission of the Church. The feast of the Conversion of St Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles, appropriately falls in the Epiphany season (25th January), as does the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity which begins a week on Monday, on 18th January.

In the Eastern churches, the Epiphany is, rather, the celebration of Christ's baptism at the hands of John, when the heavens were opened and a voice from heaven declared Jesus to be God's beloved Son.

The miracle of Cana in Galilee, where Jesus 'first manifested his glory', follows immediately:

Manifest at Jordan's stream, Prophet, Priest, and King supreme;
and at Cana wedding-guest in thy Godhead manifest.

(Christopher Wordsworth)

The season of joyful celebration that begins at Christmas now continues through the successive Sundays of Epiphany, and the festal cycle ends only with the Feast of the Presentation / Candlemas on 2nd February (celebrated here in Church on 31st January).

The child who has been manifested to the magi at his birth is now recognized by Simeon and Anna, when he comes to be presented in the Temple according to the Law of Israel. He is both 'a light to lighten the Gentiles' and 'the glory of God's people Israel'. But the redemption he will bring must be won through suffering; the Incarnation is directed to the Passion; and Simeon's final words move our attention away from the celebration of Christmas and towards the mysteries of Easter.

Bishop Christopher assures you of his prayers and blessing for this new year. Be strengthened by the faith, hope and love we have in Jesus Christ.

As we begin a New Year, you might like to join us praying this prayer written by the Dean, the Very Revd Andrew Nunn.

A Prayer for the New Year

And the one who was seated on the throne said 'See, I am making all things new.' (Revelation 21.5)

God of new beginnings, of hope and deliverance, dawn us with fresh opportunities, equip us for new tasks,
fill us with eager longing, thrill us with fresh starts, that with the past behind us we may look to all that lies ahead with faith in Jesus, hope in you
and love for all.

Amen.

There is still time to contribute to the Name a Star Campaign and make a donation to St Mark's Church Fund. Donations so far range from £100 per Star to £20 per Star. Remember you can Name a Star to celebrate your special event – Birthday, Wedding Anniversary, or Thanksgiving for something else OR in memory of those whom you love but see no longer, whose nurturing have helped you to become the person you are today.

The Campaign runs until the end of Christmas, 31st January when we celebrate Presentation of Christ in the Temple.

COLLECT

Eternal Father, who at the baptism of Jesus revealed him to be your Son, anointing him with the Holy Spirit:
 grant to us, who are born again by water and the Spirit, that we may be faithful to our calling as your adopted children;
 through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING Genesis 1:1-5

A reading from the book of Genesis.

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light.
 And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night.
 And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

PSALM Psalm 29

R The voice of the Lord is upon the waters; [the God of glory thunders].

Ascribe to the Lord, you gods, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.
 Ascribe to the Lord the glory due to his name;
 worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness. R

The voice of the Lord is upon the waters;
 the God of glory thunders;
 the Lord is upon the mighty waters.
 The voice of the Lord is a powerful voice;
 the voice of the Lord is a voice of splendour. R
 The voice of the Lord breaks the cedar trees;

the Lord breaks the cedars of Lebanon;
 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and Mount Hermon like a young wild ox. R

The voice of the Lord splits the flames of fire;
 the voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness;
 the Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
 The voice of the Lord makes the oak trees writhe
 and strips the forests bare.
 And in the temple of the Lord all are crying, "Glory!" R

The Lord sits enthroned above the flood;
 the Lord sits enthroned as king for evermore.
 The Lord shall give strength to his people;
 the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace. R

SECOND READING Acts 19:1-7

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul passed through the inland regions and came to Ephesus, where he found some disciples. He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?" They replied, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit." Then he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" They answered,
 "Into John's baptism." Paul said,
 "John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus." On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied – altogether there were about twelve of them.

GOSPEL Mark 1:4-11

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
 John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, "The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.
 And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

POST COMMUNION

Lord of all time and eternity, you opened the heavens and revealed yourself as Father in the baptism of Jesus your beloved Son:
 by the power of your Spirit complete the heavenly work of our rebirth through the waters of the new creation;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord.
