

Southwark Diocesan Conference

1-3 September at 2022, Bacon's College, Rotherhithe

The full programme has been published and you can view our exciting line-up of keynote speakers and seminar leaders here: https://issuu.com/southwarkcofedocs/sdc_programme_nal

There are still spaces to attend this significant Diocesan event in person.

If you would like more details or would like to register to attend in person or online please email the planning team at: SDC2022@southwark.anglican.org or visit the Southwark Diocesan website <https://southwark.anglican.org/news-events/events/diocesan-conference-2022/>

We also hope to build a team of lay volunteers who can experience the conference in person. If you wish to be part of this, email: SDC2022@southwark.anglican.org.

Deanery Confirmation – Sunday, 2nd October, 6pm at St. Luke's Woodside. We will need the services of a Makaton Sign language interpreter for two of our candidates. Please let Mother Roxanne know if you or someone you know could help us in this way.

Harvest Supper and Festival here at St Mark – Saturday, 8th October in the Church Hall (Supper); and the Festival, the following day, Sunday 9th October, during the 10am Parish Mass.

St Mark, South Norwood Celebrates 170 Years Of Dedication On 13th October.

We will be celebrating throughout the month of October. In order to promote the Parish Church of St Mark, there will be items on sale, including, mugs, key rings, tote bags and items for those at school, pens, pencils, notebooks, etc.

A Souvenir edition of the Parish magazine will also be available; and there will be a display of historical documents relating to the Church.

We also aim to record some intergenerational stories capturing the experiences of parishioners in this parish church over the years. Watch this space!
