A holiday club for the family

Activities for everyone - do some art and craft, music and games; learn new skills together, get in touch with God, & make new friends.

This is a family event : children must be accompanied by an adult and adults remain responsible for their children throughout.

•Booking? Places are limited so please book in good time. Please send your name, the dates you are coming, the number of adults/kids & any food allergies to
