

Thursday 11th June 2020

Today's task is to carry on with your diary entry using past tense or to try something different a storyboard for the next day. You could draw an entry with speech bubbles for Thursday

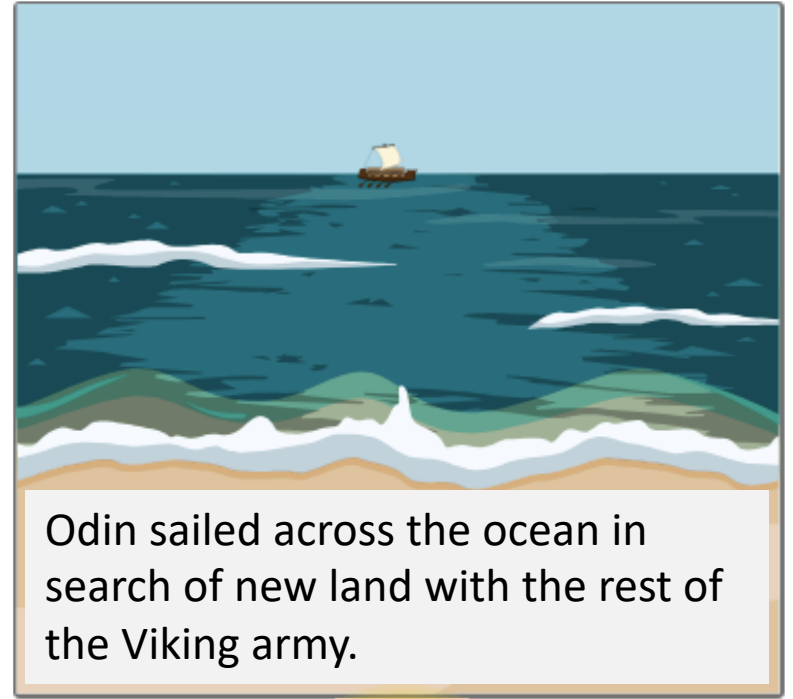

Brrr it's freezing, I can't even feel my toes! When do we leave for England?

Finally we have set sail!

Odin sailed across the ocean in search of new land with the rest of the Viking army.

Should we sail up the river? We might be at an advantage further inland!

Odin and the Viking crew decided to sail in land and settled in an abandoned village for protection and secrecy.
