sock Art Project

My challenge for you all today is to repurpose a sock. You will need to choose to create either a sock creature or a sock puppet.

Ideas and instructions are available for both projects.

(The sock creature will need you to sew and the puppet could be sewn or glued.)

We do not mind what you choose to create, the decision is yours. Animal, fantasy creature, doll...

Let your imagination run wild.

(Miss Meadows will have access to her sewing Machine to speed things up if required. This would be to only sew the basic body shape for sock toys.)

Want an extra challenging design idea? Watch these clips on how to create a monkey or puppy.
