View from the Manse

What a wonderful summer we had this year! Peter and I had a glorious holiday on the Suffolk coast – the sea was so warm, I even went swimming in the sea several times! Let's hope that we also have a golden autumn. Autumn for me always feels like the beginning of the year as all our committees and groups start up again. A time of new energy and productivity.

Each season has its own beauty and brings its own pleasure, giving variety and marking the times. It was a good hot summer for the farmers to get their crops in before the cooler and more mixed weather of autumn. At harvest time we often quote the verse in Genesis 8.22 'As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night shall not cease.'

We will be celebrating harvest on 23rd September, which happens to be the official first day of autumn. It will be café style, and once again, I will lead the service with the Eco group. It is an opportunity for us to remember with thankfulness all the good gifts of the earth that God gives us.

SAINT IVES

⇒ Harvest is an opportunity to remind us that farmers need to be careful how we use Earth's resources, growing grains for people in sensible ways: not using insecticides that harm bees, keeping hedges for the birds and insects, leaving a field fallow so that it can recover its nutrients – tending and pruning orchards, providing natural habitats for animals bred for meat, fishing responsibly and so on.

We as consumers can seek to follow our LOAF principles of buying Local, eating Organic, being Animal friendly and using Fairly Traded products where possible.

14th, 15th, 16th
SEPTEMBER 2018

We plan to have the church open on these three days, from 10 - 4 on Friday and Saturday
And 1.30 - 4pm on Sunday.

We need people to be in the foyer to welcome visitors and possibly show them around the building.

There will be a sign-up sheet on the table upstairs. We need two people at a time of two hours.

The Heritage Trust gave us a very generous donation for our recent Spire Appeal.
Entrance is FREE

EASTERN SYNOD FAITH IN ACTION FORUM - CHURCH IN SOCIETY

Of the Five Marks of Mission recognised by the URC three are concerned with action.

These are :- (3) to respond to human need by loving service; (4) to transform unjust structures of society, to challenge violence of every kind, and pursue peace and reconciliation; (5) to strive to safeguard the integrity of creation, and sustain and renew the life of the earth. These are the issues addressed by the 'Faith in Action' group, on behalf of Eastern Synod. It is clear from these that the agenda of the group is wide-ranging and complicated, and we call upon the expertise of various members of the group to inform our reports to Synod.

My special interest is with refugees and asylum seekers, which includes those who have been trafficked for sex or for labour. It is said that there is at least one brothel in every village, and in many streets in all towns. In these "establishments" there may be trafficked young people, some of them "minors", from Eastern Europe, Africa and Asia.

There are very sad stories of young people being promised a good job here, only to find themselves being sold as sex slaves. If they do not speak English they may not know where they are, and be terrified of their captors, so do not find escaping an option. There are various charities which help those who do manage to get away, such as the Red Cross, Save the Children, the Salvation Army and Freedom from Torture. One of these, The Medaille Trust, has a specific role in providing "safe houses" where the complex needs, including physical and psychological rehabilitation, are met in a safe, secret, caring Christian environment.

There are many ways in which we can help to tackle the scandal of modern slavery, including being alert to the problem, informing the police if we have suspicions, campaigning for an end to the demand for brothels, supporting agencies which work to end modern slavery in all its forms.

That is just one of the subjects on the ongoing agenda for the Faith in Action Forum. There is much to be done, and many opportunities to make a difference. The meetings are open to everyone. We hope you may like to join in this important part of our URC Mission. To get in touch with us, please ask the Synod office for our contact details.

FROM THE CHURCH ECO GROUP

Let's unpack the three Rs and add a few more.

What do we need to Reduce?

We need to buy less, travel less, and probably do less. Reduce the pressure we put on the earth's resources and reduce the pressure we put on our time-poor selves.

How can we Reuse more and bin less? By not buying anything that is intended to be used only once – packaging, coffee cups, paper plates, batteries, tissues.

Recycling involves a huge amount of energy for transporting and processing of the materials. It is important as it reduces the speed we are using up natural resources, but it should be the last resort. Recycling also means closing that loop by buying recycled things!

We can reduce our consumption by Repairing as much as we can. Get the sewing kit out, have a go at fixing that toy instead of binning it. Look after your stuff!

How many things do you have in your house that you use only once or twice a year? Why do you and your neighbour/friend all need a power drill and a hedge trimmer and a pressure washer? Many people are car-sharing now, especially in city centres where cars are not needed every day.

The fifth R is Rent, boRRow and shaRe.

Refuse, used to just mean Refusing plastic bags and the like. We don't automatically get given plastic bags any more but we still need to Refuse: Refuse to believe the adverts. Refuse to believe that your life is lacking something because you don't use a particular shampoo, have a particular electronic gadget, or you haven't been to a particular sunny destination. Refuse to believe you are worth less because you have less.

The seventh R is really the first. Rejoice! Take delight in all the good things that God has given us for free. And again I say Rejoice!

The full list of seven Rs, in order of importance is:

Rejoice
Refuse
Reduce
Reuse
Repair
Rent, borrow and share
Recycle

The three Rs does have a ring to it. Three is some kind of magic number used by speech writers and poets since Biblical times. But the Bible also uses seven as a perfect number – as it was in seven days that God created the heaven and the earth. And perhaps the greatest thing that God created was Rest on the seventh day. Rest could be another of the Rs, but I rather think it sums up of all of them.

Commitment for Life is the world development programme of the United Reformed Church. It encourages participating churches to take action, pray and give for people across the world but especially in our four partner countries/region of Bangladesh, Central America (Honduras, Guatemala, Nicaragua and El Salvador), Israel and the occupied Palestinian territory and Zimbabwe. It works in partnership with Christian Aid and Global Justice Now and has raised millions of pounds.

In the past we in the Free Church have raised money to support work in Israel and the occupied Palestinian territory and Zimbabwe. Below is a story of one of the people helped by our fundraising.

It means we are not forgotten

Khalid Mansau is a PARC (now called the Palestine Agricultural Development Association) staff member working out of the Nablus office in the West Bank. He oversees the many reclaimed land projects supported by PARC in this area. Land that was considered infertile is cleared of rocks and planted with fruit trees and vegetables.

Khalid's family were originally from Haifa but settled in a refugee camp in 1948 (following the declaration of the state of Israel). Khalid was born in the camp and still lives there today with his wife, two daughters and two sons. He is proud of what his children have achieved. One son is an engineer whilst the other is still at school. His daughters are in college studying engineering and multimedia. He still remembers when the camp was full of tents in straight rows. It took until 1949 before the UN started building houses for the refugee families.

Having trained as an agriculturalist in Nigeria he returned home to work for PARC in 2002. He would love to return to his original village in Israel one day, "I have refugee papers, it gives me a status; it means we are not forgotten. The world cannot forget."

Part of Khalid's work is to build good relationships with local councils. He is confident this has been achieved because they can see the good work PARC is doing with farmers. Long term development means building trust and showing by example: change does not happen quickly.

He said, "There is always hope but we need help from the world. Thank you for your support".

PARC is involved in many irrigation and agricultural projects across the West Bank and in the Gaza Strip. Their work sends out a positive message of hope to Palestinians living and working under Israeli occupation.

From the Church Secretary

Each year in September we run the process for the election of elders at the Free Church (United Reformed) Saint Ives.

The Ordination Service for elders contains the following: "Elders share with the minister in the pastoral oversight and leadership of the local church. They are responsible for making provision for Christian worship and education and for promoting witness and service to the community. It is their duty to arrange for the proper maintenance of church buildings, and to ensure the oversight of church finances."

As the church is now a charity, elders will also have responsibilities as trustees of the charity. Church members are asked to nominate up to twelve members for election. We are currently seeking seven additional elders. Please consider this during September and have your nominations in by 12.30 on Sunday 7th October.

Many thanks to Babs Moore and to Peter Davies who have served for six consecutive years as elders and trustees, and to Veronica Angus who has served three consecutive years and to Faith Sharp who has served five consecutive years, before stepping down.

We are also seeking more assistance with several rotas. If you can help with the preparation for serving communion, Helen Ackroyd would be pleased to hear from you. If you could help with the Audio-Visual rotas for church services, please speak to David Duffett. If you could help with the counting of collections on Sundays, please contact Babs Moore. Training and support will be provided. Valerie Temple co-ordinates the flower rota and would also value more volunteers to join in.

The nominations for new elders and trustees will be brought to the church meeting on 18th November 2018. We will then be ready for all that 2019 brings.

CREATION TIDE AND HARVEST

Dear all and each,

Creation Tide and Harvest
Time. September 1 – October
4 (feast of St. Francis).

At this time we remember god's goodness in and through creation and our responsibility for it.

This is being sent out to encourage you to stimulate and deepen your church's and/or community's celebration.

Creation care is very often forgotten in thanksgiving.

Some prayers and meditations are available.

A reminder that, as available, Peterborough Eco-faith Network can provide speakers/preachers for formal or informal settings.

Yours gratefully,

Paul Ballard via Peterborough
