11th September 2020

Dear Friends,

I wrote this from our caravan site on the edge of Minsmere RSPB Reserve, with intermittent phone and internet signal, but managed to get enough signal to send it so it could be printed for those without email.!

I've just listened to the Prime Minister saying about new 'rule of 6'. One thing he has said is that places of worship which are Covid secure can be open for up to 30 people so we should be able to go ahead with the service on Sunday, but please let Gail in the office know so we can ensure we keep within permitted numbers.

Tookey's is hoping to open on a trial basis on Friday 25th September from 1030 to 130, serving cold meals, soup, sandwiches etc. More details next week.

I understand that some people are finding that the Elders nomination form does not print properly on some computers. If this happens to you, please just email a list of your nominees.

Finally, please give thought to whether you're interested in next year's Church Weekend - see article in KIT.

With best wishes

Alan
