

Egton Church of England Voluntary Aided Primary School

Homework Policy

Effective Date:	12th July 2016
Date Due for Review:	June 2020
Approved By:	Governing Body
Approval Date:	12 th July 2016

Aims:

- To provide an important and effective link between home and school.
- To encourage an enthusiasm for and enjoyment of learning shared between school, parents and other carers
- To develop skills which will help children to pursue their curiosity, exploiting resources for learning, of all kinds, at home.
- To consolidate and reinforce skills and understanding, particularly in literacy and numeracy.
- To extend school learning, for example through additional reading.
- To encourage children, as they get older to develop the confidence and self-discipline needed to study on their own, preparing them for the requirements of secondary school.

The Head teacher will:

- set high expectations and monitor progress.
- encourage a whole school approach; keeping parents, governors, all support staff and children well informed.
- show enthusiasm for homework themselves, whilst making sure that it is relevant
- be aware of the pressures on children, parents and staff that homework may cause.
- be aware of the needs of children and families who are finding the demands of homework difficult.

Governors will:

- be well informed and show enthusiasm to encourage the sensitive use of homework throughout the school.
- support the staff in implementing the school's policy for homework.

- monitor and review progress taking into account the views of children, parents, carers and staff.

Teachers will:

- Ensure that homework is an integral part of the curriculum and is planned and prepared alongside all other programmes of learning
- ensure that homework set is relevant and pertinent.
- ensure that adequate time is given to allow the child to complete the homework.
- be sensitive to constraints on their own time and out of school time pressures on parents, carers and children.
- ensure that work done is recognised, acknowledged and marked if necessary.
- ensure that both children and parents know when the work is expected to be done and the timing of any tests related to the homework set. Appendix 2
- be sensitive to the needs of children and families who are finding the demands of homework difficult.
- ensure that the children, parents and carers understand what is expected from the homework.
- encourage high expectations in the presentation and standard of homework

The SENCO will:

- support the teacher in setting relevant homework for children with special needs, and for gifted and talented pupils
- use learning objectives and IEP's when preparing individual homework.
- keep up to date with new resources and ensure that members of staff are made aware of any relevant information or resources.
- implement appropriate intervention strategies where a need is identified.
- be sensitive to the needs of children who are finding the demands of homework difficult.
- encourage high expectations in the presentation and standard of homework

Children will be encouraged to:

- enjoy and develop an enthusiasm for homework, see its relevance in real life and for KS2 know that this is a preparation for the demands of the secondary school.
- be able to see how their work at home enriches and supports their work in school.
- feel that they are sharing their learning with other members of their family.
- demonstrate a commitment to their work by completing it to the best of their ability and handing it in on time.
- complete their homework at a playtime if they have not completed it by the end of the week
- complete homework to a high standard which is presented neatly

Support Staff will:

- have a clear understanding of their role in the setting of homework.
- be sensitive to the needs of children and families who are finding the demands of homework difficult.
- encourage high expectations in the presentation and standard of homework

Parents will:

- be encouraged to develop positive attitudes to homework and support their children to develop an enthusiasm for the subjects.
- be well informed of their child's progress through annual reports and parents evenings.
- feel that they can consult the teacher over any problems related to homework working in partnership.
- be encouraged to use their own skills and talents.
- Share in their child's learning, helping with the completion of homework tasks when necessary
- encourage high expectations in the presentation and standard of homework
- take part in parent consultations about homework when the policy is reviewed – Appendix 1

Assessment:

- Homework will not be used for assessment purposes

Inclusion:

Egton C.E. (VA) Primary School upholds an Equal Opportunities Policy. All children will be included in homework activities with special provision being made for children with special requirements;
e.g. disabilities requiring assistance for practical activities.

Appendix 1 Consultation Response 2016

At Egton School we recognise that this is an area which will always invoke differing opinions and responses. However in our 2016 parent consultation the following opinions were in the majority:

- there are many demands on both children's and parent's time
- homework should be relevant, enjoyable and not overly intensive
- it should be predominantly topic, reading, spelling and maths
- would prefer homework to be returned by Friday
- there should be a clear plan
- that parents should help children with their homework
- that any task should not be any longer than 30 minutes

We received valuable feedback with a wide range of views which we have taken into account when writing this policy. Thank you.
